"GUM-SHOE" POLICY.

Sleuth Goes Over All Europe.

Notebook in Hand, He Tries to Catch Remarks of People for Use.

Hearst's Dirty Methods Duplicated in McClellan's as in Bryan's Case.

"Sleuth" Had Woman Along but Tricky Pair Came Home Empty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To the crop of political curiosities which has sprung up and flourished in the wake of the Independence League, in its campaign to nominate its owner, W. R. Hearst for Governor, there must be added a new specimen, the "gum-shoe" man. He accompanied William J. Bryan all through Europe, keeping a close eye on him, day and night, and trailed Mayor McClellan from the time he set foot in Europe until he stepped off the steamship last Saturday night.

HE GOT GARRULOUS.

But for the fact that the "gum-shoe" man became garrulous and noisy on the voyage over, Mayor McClellan would probably be blissfully ignorant of the fact that he was "shadowed." But the gravity of the work and the "gum-shoe" man's desire for glory overcame him, one night, in the room, and to all he proclaimed that he and two companions, one a woman, had had their eyes on Mayor McClellan every minute of his European trip, and knew whom he had met, with whom he had shaken hands and what Americans had dined with him.

HE'D HA' KNOWN IT.

Before his flow of eloquence ceased the "gum-shoe" man said that it would have been impossible for the Mayor to have let in Thomas F. Ryan, or even Ryan's second cousin or head office boy without having the fact known; that he could not even have met August Belmont or an insurance man without being found out.

Had there been any conference in the Carlton, the Ritz or elsewhere, the "gum-shoe" brigade would have known it, and the organs of the Independence League would have told it.

WAITED IN VAIN.

Day after day they waited for someone bearing even a resemblance to a representative of a corporation head to tap the Mayor on the shoulder and engage in rapid and hushed conversation with him, but they waited in vain, and almost in tears. Their little books are filled with notes, but they are so commonplace that the sleuths were returning to the office sorrowfully and reluctantly.

"MAC" DIDN'T WORRY.

One of the sleuths has done detective work on one of the Independence League papers, and his companions have been connected with the same journal. Mayor McClellan did not see them abroad, but they saw him perpetually.

It was when William J. Bryan loomed up as a rival of Hearst for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1908 that the "gum-shoe" man was pressed into service.

SAME AS EVER.

His duty was twofold, first, to trap the Nebraskan, if possible, into saying something that would be a boomerang, and, second, to keep careful note of all the persons he met.

THE EMPTY NOTEBOOK.

The "sleuth" assigned to this task is a political writer on an Independence League paper, but to his chagrin and the utter disappointment of his superiors, he brought back a notebook destitute of anything that could be put to advantageous use.

FOR THE COMMON GOOD.

It is the aim of The Los Angeles Times:

To exploit and advance the best interests of the people of the fair and fertile land wherein it is published, and to which it steadily devotes its efforts;

To stand for liberty and law, equal rights and good government, the greatest boon to a free people;

To foster and encourage private and public enterprise, and hold up the hands of every honest toiler, either with brawn or brain, in every field of activity;

To stand independently for the true interests of the city, the State and the nation, and for those policies only which make for the common good;

It aims to be excellent and not cheap.

WILL IGNORES MRS. OELRICHS.

CONTEST MAY BE INSTITUTED FOR PROPERTY.

Widow Learns Other Immediate Relatives Are Remembered in the Document, but That She Is Left Without Any Provision, the Two Having Been Estranged.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It now develops that there probably will be a contest over the will of the late Hermann Oelrichs, the widow having learned, it is said, that Oelrichs's brother, Charles; Mrs. Col. Jay and Mrs. Oelrichs's son, are the sole beneficiaries, and the widow does not get a penny.

With this news comes the further statement that it is not true that the millionaire and his wife had become partially reconciled, and that he was hurrying home to meet her when he knew he was dying. On the contrary, it is asserted that he felt even a trifle more bitter against her, because he was dying under such unhappy circumstances.

Mrs. Oelrichs and her son are here, and at the end of the season will sail for Europe. Mrs. Charles Oelrichs and daughter, Mrs. Peter D. Martin, also are here, and it is said they have come to consult with the widow to see if a will contest cannot be avoided. It is asserted that a settlement will come sooner if there is no contest.

CLUBMAN DIES BY OWN HAND.

CLARENCE WOOSTER OF CHICAGO USES RAZOR.

Suicide Was Vice-President of Gas Company and Prominent in Social Circles—Had Suffered from Heat Prostration and Was Believed to Have Been Insane at Time of Act.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Clarence K. Wooster, vice-president of the People's Gas, Light and Coke Company and prominent in club and social circles, committed suicide today at his home, No. 3500 Ellis avenue, by cutting his throat with a razor.

Wooster is supposed to have been insane when he killed himself. Three weeks ago he suffered from heat prostration and the last few days had been under care of physicians.

This morning he entered the bathroom and a moment later his valet, who had been instructed to keep watch over him, heard him fall. When the valet opened the door Wooster was lying on the floor with the blood streaming from a deep gash in his throat and his razor was lying at his side. He died before a physician could be summoned.

Wooster was 48 years old and unmarried.

CASSIER'S LIFE LIKE ROMANCE.

DEAD PUBLISHER'S AFFAIRS IN CHAOTIC STATE.

Attorney for Property Declares Career Is One of Most Remarkable Psychological Propositions Ever Met With and He Sees Further Complications Ahead.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DEDHAM (Mass.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Attorney H. D. Greenwood, representing Adolph Cassier of this town, and Helena Hallman of Boston, brother and half-sister of Louis Cassier, the magazine publisher who was killed in Salisbury, Eng., in the railroad wreck, says in an interview:

"No one knows what that man left. There are thousands of dollars in life insurance yet to be accounted for. He certainly was eccentric in his marital relations and when the matter of hearing the case comes up in New York, which has been assigned for September 12, we shall make a claim on behalf of the common law wife, Gertrude Spooner of Scituate, Mass."

Judge Nicholson, attorney for Cassier's estate, declares Cassier's life is one of the most remarkable psychological propositions he ever met. It is asserted by outside parties that further investigations may result in disclosing that Cassier had other wives, like a roaming sailor in every port.

There will be a bitter fight between the probate authorities in Connecticut and in New York, over administering the estate as there is a large succession tax coming to the State of Connecticut in case the will is probated and administered upon at Bridgeport.

Mrs. Agnes Cassier refuses to affirm or deny that she was married to the publisher. Judge Nicholson says it is impossible to determine the value of the property, but it may run as high as $500,000.

RANCHMEN DIE IN WELL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BUTTE (Mont.) Sept. 9.—Three ranchmen lost heir lives yesterday afternoon by being overcome by gas in an abandoned well in the flats below the city. The dead:

FRANK ELLEY, aged 27.
MATHEW FOGARTY, aged 34.
ANDREW MEHAR, aged 35.

Fogarty and Mehar lost their lives in attempts at rescue.

DEMOCRACY GATHERS.

State Capitol Hears Their Clatter.

Delegates Say There's no "Slate" for Governor or Other Officers.

Los Angelenos Still Boom "Nate" Cole, and "Joe" Call Is Mentioned.

Poet McGroarty Is Receiving Mention for Congress. Bell "Rung" in.

BY B. FRANK GREAVES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The advance guard of the Democratic party of California is in Sacramento tonight, seeking a candidate for Governor.

Twenty-six Los Angeles delegates, including Judge D. K. Trask, Milton K. Young, Earl Rogers and Joseph H. Call, arrived this evening. About the same number is expected tomorrow.

The convention will assemble Tuesday, and probably will complete its labors Wednesday.

SAY THERE'S NO SLATE.

State Chairman Timothy Spellacy of Bakersfield was one of the first arrivals. Like all good Democrats, the delegates say there is no "slate" for Governor, nor for any other State office.

STILL BOOMING COLE.

The Los Angeles delegates are for Nathan Cole, Jr., of that city. He will get a big complimentary vote on the first ballot, and yet may show much strength. Cole, however, has declared all along that he does not desire the nomination.

JOE CALL IS COY.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on Joseph H. Call of Los Angeles to permit his name to go before the convention, but he has been coy so far.

POET FOR CONGRESS.

Some of the Los Angeles delegates are urging Earl Rogers for convention chairman, and the same ones say they will name John S. McGroarty for Congress from the Seventh District, the convention of which will assemble here, but will adjourn to Los Angeles, probably, to make its nomination.

GUBERNATORIAL POSSIBILITIES.

The candidates most prominently mentioned for Governor are James D. Phelan of San Francisco, former Congressman Theodore Bell of Napa, and Nathan Cole, Jr. Phelan appears by far the first choice, and if the nomination goes to him unanimously, it is believed he will accept.

DON'T WANT LANGDON.

Delegates now here say they will have nothing to do with William H. Langdon of San Francisco, the "rump" nominee of Willie Hearst's so-called Independence League. Hearst's boosters named Langdon in the hope that the Democrats would indorse him and name the rest of his running mates.

NOT TO BE BOUGHT.

This plot is opposed bitterly by leading Los Angeles delegates, who declare they will not sell out to the "Yellow Kid."

RINGING CHANGES ON BELL.

Next to former Mayor Phelan of San Francisco, Theodore Bell of Napa appears to be the favorite candidate. He was in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, and made a favorable impression. He was defeated for Congress two years ago by Duncan McKinlay of Sonoma, who was renominated last week at Santa Cruz by the Republicans of the Second District.

If Bell is not nominated for Governor he again will enter the race for Congress. It is urged that Bell, being from the North, is the logical candidate to pit against Gillett, the Republican nominee. He is young, brainy and a forceful speaker.

HOW CANDIDATES RANK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The position of the Democratic candidates may be given as follows: Phelan, Bell, Diggs and Langdon. The District Attorney is not regarded as a remote probability, judging from expressions of delegates now in this city. They say the party wishes to nominate a Democrat, and they will not accept the nominee of a "side show" as a regular party man.

Then, too, the San Francisco delegation, or at least 125 of the 168 from this city, are opposed to Langdon, and the rest of the delegation is divided among several candidates, and not all for Langdon.

Should Nathan Cole, Jr., of Los Angeles change his attitude and get into the fight for Governor, a new condition might develop, with Cole as top candidate. But Cole has said he does not wish the nomination.

W. H. Alford, member of the State Board of Equalization, is in the fight one day and out the next. Whether he will be in or out when the convention nominates a candidate for Governor has not been determined.

"HOME-COMERS" TO BALTIMORE.

GREAT JUBILEE CEREMONIES IN COMMEMORATION OF FIRE.

Conflagration of Two Years Ago Brought Forth Enterprise That Resulted in Upbuilding of Better Business District—Splendid Illumination Tonight.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BALTIMORE (Md.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The trains have been bringing the "home comers" to the various railroad stations today. They have been coming from all parts of the State and the contiguous States, while a number from a distance have also been bringing in oldtimers to take part in the great jubilee ceremonies in celebration of Baltimore's recovery from the conflagration of 1904.

Baltimore street has been thronged all night, with pedestrians out to see the partial illumination, women predominating in summery costumes, the weather having turned quite warm.

CHURCHES TELL THE LESSON.

In all the churches in the city, the jubilee and the rebuilding of the city furnished the themes of the sermons, and the lessons of the great fire were told from various points of view.

Although it was Sunday, workmen were busy on the arches, stands and illuminations throughout the business sections.

Tomorrow the great rush of visitors and exiled natives is expected to take place, and the day will be largely given over to showing them the great change that has been made in the business district since they left Baltimore.

The cruiser Newark, the revenue cutters Seminole and Apache and the practice bark Chase are to arrive tomorrow, and their officers will be officially welcomed.

PRESS THE BUTTON TONIGHT.

Tomorrow night, the button is to be pressed to turn on the electrical illumination, and hundreds of thousands of electric lights will cover the new skyscrapers and other fine buildings in the Greater Baltimore.

The military parade Tuesday will include United States troops and military, 6000 in all, and in the industrial pageant, Wednesday, there will be 25,000 paraders.

GAS IN THEIR FACES.

Fourteen Men Badly Injured by Explosion in Toronto and Several of Them May Die.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TORONTO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fourteen men were injured here in a terrible gas accident at the Consumers' Gas Works on Front street and in some cases the wounds may prove fatal. The fourteen were taken to the General Hospital.

The men were all working round a purifier, about 30x30 feet and 6 feet deep. They had just raised the lid to take out what is known as the "log ore," when the gas ignited, and with great pressure, blew out into the men's faces with a loud crash.

Ambulances were sent for immediately, and everything was done to relieve the men.

The following are the names of the injured, as far as known:

JAMES WRIGHT.
W. COOPER.
THOMAS GARDNER.
AARON HEARN.
DAVID HARDY.
ELLIOTT BATT.
W. WEBSTER.
THOMAS DICKENSON, all residing in Toronto.

HEAVY GALE IN BERMUDA.

Two Lives Have Been Lost and Fears Are Expressed That Worse May Follow.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERMUDA, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A very heavy gale from the southwest has been raging since yesterday afternoon. Its estimated velocity, when the wind was at its height, was seventy miles an hour. It is feared that the loss of life and property will prove even greater than now appears.

Two lives are known to have been lost; several houses were badly damaged, and many boats were sunk. The ferry steamer Corona caught fire in the midst of the gale in Hamilton Harbor, and was destroyed.

On account of the fierce wind, the flames for a time threatened the destruction of the town, but the wind changed, and it is now thought the gale is abating.

BRYAN SPLITS HIS PARTY.

Democrats of His Home State Agree With Prediction of Dr. Miller.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In his open letter to the public, Dr. George L. Miller of Omaha, in predicting that Bryan, if he persists in his government-ownership idea, will not receive the Democratic nomination in 1908, voices the sentiment of a large number of Nebraska Democrats who are not ready to follow Bryan into the government-ownership campaign, although they have supported him in years past.

Miller supported Bryan in his two former campaigns, and has been at outs with the Democracy of this State since, but during the last year there has been a rapproachement between the two wings of the party in this State, Bryan's recent utterances, however, have again split the party here.

OUTLAWS AID BORDER SCRAP.

WRETCHED MEXICAN CRIMINALS AGITATORS.

Military Commander of Three States Declares Revolutionary Talk Is "Nonsense" and That Those so Far Taken Are Miserable Rascals That Have no Funds or Following.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 9.—A special to the Herald from a staff correspondent who was sent to Douglas, Ariz., to meet Gen. Louis Torres, of the Mexican military, commanding the States of Sonora, Sinaloa and Lower California, declares that the general calls all the sensational revolutionary talk "nonsense" and says:

"The men under arrest have no money, have no influence and are simply wretched rascals who have fled from Mexico to escape from their crimes.

"In all the letters captured there are pleas for money showing that they have no finances and that they are a class of men who never can do anything serious.

"There is a feeling of unrest, I admit, in Northwestern Mexico, just as there is a feeling similar in Southwestern United States, and nobody knows the cause. Perhaps there is some big corporation behind it all, but thus far the agitators have no money and the Mexican government is giving itself no concern, except to take such precautions as the United States or any other country would take."

There will be no serious trouble, Gen. Torres believes, and the arrest of these men in Arizona will end the matter entirely. He speaks warmly of his gratitude as well as that of all Mexico for the prompt steps taken by the United States officials. It is believed that the trial of the prisoners at Douglas was postponed pending the arrest of other members of the Junta at St. Louis. The trial has been put off till September 16.

AUTO TOURISTS ARRIVE.

Little and Hagerty Reduce Cross-Country Record in New York-San Francisco Run.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—R. C. Little and C. D. Hagerty, who in company with three expert chauffeurs left New York August 16 in an automobile, seeking to reduce the trans-continental tourist car record of 23 days, arrived here tonight. The trip occupied 24 days, 8 hours and 45 minutes, including all stops, thus lowering the record by nearly 9 days.

H. N. HARRIMAN'S PROSPECT.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A rumor is current at Newport that Herbert N. Harriman, cousin of the railway magnate, who was recently divorced, is to wed May Bradley Hall as soon as the latter gets a divorce from her present husband. The bride-elect is a picturesque society beauty.

RUSSIAN TROOPS KILL HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SIEDLCE, (Russian Poland) Sept. 9.—A massacre of police and soldiers began at 8 o'clock Saturday night. Immediately afterward, the troops attacked the Jews.

All day, today, the soldiers have attacked civilians and Christians or Jews, robbing and murdering them without discrimination. Hundreds of persons were killed or wounded and the streets were devastated.

It is reported the drunken reservists started the trouble. Troops have surrounded the city and refuse access to it.

TERRORISTS KILL SOLDIERS.

WARSAW'S NEWS OF MASSACRE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WARSAW, Sept. 9.—Terrorists Saturday evening shot and killed two soldiers guarding an alcohol store at Siedlce. A detachment of troops fired into a crowd, killed two persons and wounding many. This morning, the terrorists retaliated by beginning a massacre of police and soldiers patrolling the street, and at noon the infuriated troops attacked the Jewish quarter of Siedlce, destroying their houses and shops.

It is reported that over one hundred persons were killed or wounded, and that the town is in flames.

A regiment of infantry has been sent from Deila to Siedlce to restore order.

The Jews here are panic-stricken. Alarming reports are being circulated in the city.

MACKAY'S WIFE ASKS DIVORCE.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The wife of Charles Mackay, the actor, herself the daughter of "Albert Ross," the novelist, is suing her husband for divorce, naming Lillian Kemble, late leading woman of the Castle Square Theater, as co-respondent.

THUGGERY REIGNS.

Death Threats for Calhoun.

Baffled Unions Resort to Their Desperate Methods in San Francisco.

Former Member Holds Up Several of the United Railroads' Cars.

Non-union Employees Beaten and Robbed and Footsteps Are Dogged.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Daring lawlessness reigns supreme in San Francisco. The disruption of the recently-formed association of seven unions whose members were employed by the United Railroads, has created conditions that are a menace to human life in this city.

President Calhoun of the United Railroads has been threatened with death and warned that the powerhouses of his company are to be destroyed with dynamite. Not once, but many times, has he received anonymous letters containing these dastardly threats.

Non-union employés of the United Railroads have been beaten and robbed and their lives are not considered safe on the streets after dark. Union pickets dog the footsteps of all the Farley strike-breakers who are allowed to leave the car barns.

UNIONS DESPERATE.

Members of the Conference Committee of the affiliated unions have taken the stand that "The United Railroads and the public can sweat. We will arbitrate when we get good and ready."

Traffic of the city is badly congested through the shortage of cars, and construction work on the railways is blocked by the refusal of unionists to return to work, and by the thuggery and intimidation of the strikers against the non-union workers.

Harry W. Merton, a striking oiler of the United Railroads, who held up and robbed conductors of the two Fillmore-street cars shortly after midnight yesterday at the corner of Fillmore and Francisco streets, will attempt to defend himself on the ground that his act was the result of a protracted three days' debauch. Merton spent a sleepless night in jail. Frightened almost to hysterics by the charge of highway robbery that he faced, he was a most penitent prisoner when seen by The Times reporter yesterday.

UNIONS FORCED HIM OUT.

"I was forced by the union to quit my job when the oilers and wipers of the Buchanan-street power-house went on a strike," he said. "I did not want to strike, but the union boss said I would get my head punched if I did not walk out. The gang threatened me and compelled me to strike.

"They filled me up with booze to get me in a good humor, and I kept up the pace. I don't remember just what I did. I was sore at the railroad, sore at the union, and wanted to get even with somebody, so I thought it would be fun to take some of the railroad's money. I am no highwayman, and if the damn union had left me alone I would never have gotten drunk."

USED EMPTY REVOLVER.

When Merton stands trial the argument will be presented in his favor that he attempted the wholesale holdup of Fillmore-street cars, saying that he was going to rob every car on the line, that he made no attempt to escape and used only an empty revolver, and was in a hilarious and reckless mood during his commitment of the crime.

Upon holding up the first car, in charge of Motorman J. J. Lawler and conductor A. J. Davis, he returned the money handed over by Lawler, saying, "Take this back. I don't want your money; you are a hard-working man. I want the money of the United Railroads."

When the second car, in charge of Conductor C. H. Williams and Motorman J. Fife, appeared at the top of the hill, a block away, Merton marched Lawler and Davis up the track.

"IN HOLD-UP GAME."

Williams saw the two approaching and said, "What's the row?" Merton sprang forward, yelling, "I am in the hold-up game."

He forced one of the conductors to search the other and returned the money that Davis had taken from Motorman Fife and is reported to have said:

"All I want this time is the money of your bosses. You are not being held up; I am after the United Railroads and I am out to get them. You get on board this car and slide up hill and send down another. If you are not quick about it there will be murder."

Williams and Fife ran the car up

POLITICAL.

FIFTY YEARS' PROSPERITY.

Campaign Text-book Reviews Republican Success.

Continuance in Power Called for by Its Record.

Interesting Situations Exist in Maine and Ohio.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Republican party, its achievements for half a century, and particularly its record in the present Congress, is commended to the voters of the country in the campaign text-book given out today by the Republican Congressional Committee.

The book contains 273 pages, and is replete with Republican doctrine, embracing practically every conceivable subject upon which information may be desired. Radicalism or conservatism it is declared, are never matters of concern to Republicans, but, it is said, "they are content with practical and progressive ideas and the maturing of these ideas into positive performance."

REPUBLICANISM IS TRUTH.

Every statement made and all figures presented are declared in the foreword of the book to be official and authoritative, and the foreword concludes: "The truth is the highest exemplification of the Republican doctrines and policies and party record, the best plea that can be made for continuation in power."

In discussing the campaign issues of 1896, the book calls attention to the fact, that, since the termination of the Fifty-third Congress, in 1895, the House of Representatives has been Republican and adds:

"There is every reason to expect that a substantial working Republican majority will be elected next November."

During those ten years, it is stated, "we have made a greater advance as a nation and a people than was ever made before in a generation, and in many respects greater than during our whole previous history. There cannot be the least doubt of Republican success, if the voters study carefully the record of the two parties.

DARK AGES PAST.

"There will be thousands and thousands of thousands," the book says, "Who will vote for the first time in November, who were mere children when the Democrats last had a majority in the House of Representatives, and they all do not vividly remember the awful times and conditions brought on the country by that Congress.

"They were not born when the only Democratic President since the Civil War was first elected. They were babes in arms when Grover Cleveland sent his famous or infamous free-trade message to Congress, and when a year after the iniquitous Mills bill was framed and passed by the Democratic House of Representatives, of the Fiftieth Congress. But, fortunately, there was a Republican Senate to prevent the enactment of a free-trade law and disaster and calamity was averted.

BRYAN GIVEN A RESPITE.

CONGRESS FIGHT IS FIRST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Leaders of the Democratic party have decided not to make any fight at the present time against William J. Bryan's advocacy of government ownership of railways. Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, who is generally recognized as the leader of his party in the Senate, is in the city. At first he was inclined, he says, to make a statement setting forth his views on the question, and these are known to be decidedly at variance with those recently expressed by the Nebraskan, but this evening, he said, after consultation with the leaders of the party, that he would defer his announcement.

Bailey thinks that it would be unwise at this time, when the Congress campaign is approaching, to inject into the situation anything which tends to disrupt the party and endanger its success.

A controversy over the ownership of railways Senator Bailey and other leaders of the party believe, might jeopardize the success of Democratic candidates in some parts of the country, and discussion of it, so far in advance of the national campaign, would be without profit.

The opponents of the Bryan idea, however, reserve the right to answer Bryan at a later date, in both speech and writing.

BAD FOR SENATOR DICK.

CONVENTION IS AGAINST HIM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9.—The friends of Congressman Theodore E. Burton were in complete control of the Cuyahoga County Republican Convention, which was held yesterday.

The platform adopted demands, among other things, the retirement of United States Senator Charles Dick as the head of the party organization in Ohio, calls for the election of United States Senators by popular vote, and indorses President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft.

Congressman Burton said that for both Senators Dick and Foraker he had only kind feelings personally, but that in the issue between the Ohio Senators and the President he desired the convention to go on record with a stronger commendation of the latter than of the former. Only two votes were cast against the platform.

CAMPAIGN IN MAINE.

LITTLEFIELD PREDICTS SUCCESS

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUGUSTA (Me.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Predictions vary as to the result of the Maine elections Monday. The Republican managers are certain that Gov. Cobb will be re-elected by a majority of 12,000 to 13,000, and that they will carry both branches of the Legislature, and reelect all four Congressmen, by a good majority.

Democrats do not give any figures on Littlefield, but the Republican managers give him a plurality of from 2000 to 4000. Littlefield is confident he has won.

LIQUOR LAW AFFECTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Cobb of Maine has made his campaign on purely State issues, but the candidacy of Littlefield has been given wide prominence on account of the fact that he has been opposed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has made made speeches in Littlefield's district in the past three weeks.

Republican leaders are quoted as admitting that, largely because of the operation of the so-called Sturgis liquor law, the State ticket will probably not have a plurality exceeding 11,000, while for nearly a decade the Republican plurality has been in excess of 25,000.

POLITICAL BRIEFS.

Special Election on Gambling.

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fate of public gambling in Douglas will be decided Saturday, September 15, by a special election, two judges and clerks of which are selected by the church people and two by the gambling element. The vote is on a prohibitive license. The city's present annual revenue from the games is something more than $12,000.

Democrats of Connecticut.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The Democrats of Connecticut will meet in convention at Hartford, Tuesday, to nominate candidates for the various State offices. It is expected that Charles F. Thayer of Norwich will be named for Governor and John M. Ney of Hartford for Lieutenant-Governor.

Warfare on Gompers.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] New England employers have sent out a confidential appeal for funds to conduct warfare against Gompers and other labor leaders in the coming political campaign and undo their work.

JAMAICANS WELCOME ITALIANS.

KINGSTON (Jamaica) Sept. 9.—The Italian cruiser Umbria sailed this morning for New York. The flagship Fieramosca is still here, and the crew is searching for a torpedo which was lost a few days ago. Saturday, the Mayor of the city, on behalf of the people, presented the admiral with a souvenir as a remembrance of the pleasant stay of the warship in Jamaican waters.

AVALOS DRIVES BACK FORCES OF GUERRA.

Excitement in Havana Follows News of Insurgent Attack Upon Armored Train—Clews Hastens to Paso Real on False Tidings.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HAVANA, Sept. 9.—Government, military and railroad officials and the newspaper correspondents were thrown into a state of excitement this evening by men who arrived here from Paso Real with stories that the armored train which left Havana Friday had met with various obstacles beyond Herradura; had been thrown from the track, and its 300 men, machine guns, horses and equipment captured.

As these tales were confirmed by the western railroads' first telegraphic advices from Paso Real, they were believed to be true, until authentic reports of actual occurrences were wired by those who had returned to Paso Real from the scene.

The real facts of the case are that Col. Avalos, who was believed to be surrounded in Pinar del Rio City, and the armored train made a junction east of Consolacion del Sur, and the government forces to that extent are reinforced. The news of this fact caused much relief in official circles.

AMERICAN'S MACHINE GUNS.

The train proceeded Saturday evening from Paso Real to two and one-third miles east of Consolacion del Sur, at which point the railroad rails have been removed, and replaced a locomotive and three cars which had been thrown from the track. The insurgents attacked, but were driven off by the two machine guns handled by the American captain, Webster.

It is believed that many insurgents were killed, but the number is not known.

Meanwhile, a large portion of Col. Avalos's force had come eastward from Pinar del Rio for the purpose of making a junction with the machine-gun corps. At Consolacion del Sur, their advance was disputed by a large band of insurgents, and a lively fight ensued. The insurgents were driven off, and several of them were killed or wounded.

Avalos and his men continued their journey eastward, this morning, and made a junction, first with the cavalry force of Capt. Ravenna, which is scouting ahead, and finally with the disabled troop train. The train has not been molested since the junction was effected, but the bridge over the Santa Clara River eastward from the train was blown up, today, together with two smaller ones, preventing the use of the road beyond Herradura.

As the bridges westward near Puerta Golpe also have been destroyed, no trains can operate from Pinar del Rio city in either direction. Both the railroad and the telegraph line continue in use to Paso Real.

Tonight 215 men and four machine guns, commanded by Lieut.-Col. Clews, started for Paso Real. The sending of this force was hastened by the false news of a disaster.

Capt. Ravenna, one lieutenant and four privates wounded are the only casualties reported in the Consolacion del Sur operations.

ALARM IN HAVANA.

There is some alarm in Havana on account of the nearness to the city of several hundred insurgents belonging to the forces of Ashbert, Lyonas and Castillo, some of whom are often seen in the hills.

Intimations received from these bands are to the effect that they are merely awaiting the outcome of the peace negotiations, practically all the insurgents in the provinces of Havana and Santa Clara having ceased operations for the present in accordance with the tentative agreement with the peace commissioners.

KAID SEIZES TOWN.

TANGIER, Sept. 9.—Dispatches received from Mogador say that Anfloos Kaid has seized the town and batteries and won over the government troops. The Jews fled to Keilah.

Hartford Youth Slashes His Friend's Throat.

Assailant Becomes Enraged Over Ball Games.

Police Hunting for Murderer Who Slips Away.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HARTFORD (Ct.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Losing his temper during a dispute over a ball game, Francis Curtin, 17 years old, cut the throat of Robert S. Jardine, while the latter was standing in the doorway of Hopkins' Brewery on Sheldon street, last night, almost severing Jardine's head from his body by a stroke of a razor.

Curtin made his escape immediately after he committed the deed, and the police all over the State have been notified to watch for him.

Jardine, who was 26 years old, and married, lived within a few doors of Curtin, on Union street, and the two became engaged in a friendly discussion over certain ball games played here not long ago. It is said that Curtin became very excited as he talked with Jardine. They argued for a few moments and again Curtin seemed to lose control of himself.

Then without warning, he opened a razor which he held concealed in his right hand, and partly up his coat sleeve, and slashed it across the throat of Jardine. The move was made so quickly that Jardine was unable to protect himself, and he sank to the floor, dying a few moments later. His head lay on the ground almost severed from the body.

TOMBS IS LOCATED.

DISCOVERED IN RENO, NEV.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Tombs, County Clerk of Lassen county, who, about ten days ago, took French leave of family and his creditors, has been seen in the Palace and the Oberon gambling rooms at Reno, Nev.

Some time ago Tombs became involved in financial difficulties over a warrant issued by the County Recorder in payment for the heating plant of the new High School building. At that time he was saved from exposure by several business men of Susanville.

However, matters kept getting worse, until exposure was imminent, when Tombs left, ostensibly for a trip down the valley. He never returned, but wrote to his wife saying he was going to Tonopah, and he would not return.

SHOT IN HOLD-UP.

SALOON-KEEPER WILL DIE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Frank Duenckhoe, a saloon-keeper, was shot and mortally wounded by three men who attempted to hold up his saloon at Eddy and Devisadero streets shortly before 12 o'clock last night. Duenckhoe resisted and was shot through the breast.

Attracted by the shooting, the police arrived on the scene in time to capture the trio. They gave their names as Charles J. Blake, Frank O'Connor and Charles Collignon, and are said to be strike-breakers imported by the United Railroads during the recent strike.

Duenckhoe was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it is said that he will die.

SUBSTITUTED "LIVE" ONES.

INSURANCE FRAUD CHARGED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Mary A. Tennyson, a wealthy woman, and her brother, Dennis Griffin, have been indicted by the Suffolk grand jury charged with conspiring to defraud life insurance companies. They are held in $3000 bail each.

Mrs. Tennyson is accused of submitting strong, healthy men and women for examination in place of dying ones for whom insurance policies are issued.

One Thomas Nelson, a seaman of herculean build, is alleged to have been a frequent dummy brought up for the necessary medical examinations, but now has disappeared. Griffin is said to be an accessory and one of those who have been insured.

STABBING OF L. B. COOK.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9.—Lawrence B. Cook, member of the Pennsylvania Legislature from the Fourth District, who was renominated by the Republican party yesterday, was today fatally stabbed by Andrew MacMillan a justice of the peace and a wealthy resident of Carnegie. Cook became famous during the last Legislature for being the author of the Greater Pittsburgh Bill. Cook is said to have been in Mrs. MacMillan's company at the time of the stabbing. MacMillan was arrested and held without bail.

THEOSOPHISTS CONVENING.

From all parts of the world devotees at the mystic shrine of Theosophy are arriving in Chicago, where a great international convention of the followers of the cult will be held during the coming week. Col. Henry Steele Olcott of Madras, India, Supreme High Priest of Theosophy, arrived in Chicago today. Secrecy will surround the proceedings of the convention. The scoffing unbelievers will be carefully excluded, for which purpose a sesquipedalian password has been prepared, which none but a Theosophist of many years standing would dream of carrying about with him.

HIGHWAYMAN TOO FAST.

Three Evanston residents, after turning hold-up and robbing two pedestrians, were caught today because of fast driving. The men attacked C. L. Prindle and G. A. Weatherby, two Evanston residents, whom they badly beat up. Then, in seeking to make their escape, they exceeded the speed limits, and were captured by Evanston policemen, who later found they were highwaymen.

DR. STRONG RESIGNS.

Dr. Sidney Strong, pastor of the Oak Park Congregational Church, is determined to sever his connections with the church and seek new fields. NO LIEN ON ASSETS WILL EARLE ALLOW.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a meeting tonight, between George H. Earle, Jr., and his attorney, John G. Johnson, the plan of reorganization of the Real Estate Trust Company, which has been prepared by the receiver, was polished into shape for presentation, tomorrow, to the directors of the institution.

The meeting tonight lasted several hours. All of the time was consumed in consideration of the legal aspects of Earle's plan. Earle, himself, the directors, stockholders, depositors and the public, think that the plan is feasible, and will stand, if necessary, the test of the courts.

It was that wish which inspired his consultation with Johnson. Every detail of the Earle propositions were scrutinized minutely, with especial reference to banking laws and precedents. At the conclusion of the conference, the plan was virtually in shape for submission to the directors. Johnson declines to discuss the subject of the conference, however.

DIRECTORS HAVE NO LIEN.

Earle, in an interview, said that while he would not be able to present his plan for reorganization until tomorrow evening, at the earliest, he would say, however, that directors will have no lien upon the bank or its assets, whatever, for the money they subscribe to rehabilitate the bank. That they will subscribe an amount sufficient to make up the difference between the actual value of the Segal securities and the amount of the loans received thereon.

Earle stated tonight that the last director of the company to be heard from telegraphed him today, agreeing to the plan of reorganization, as he had outlined it to the directors. This virtually insures the success of the plan. He predicts a much brighter future for the reorganized company than the old one enjoyed in its best days.

Who signed the note for $77,000 bearing the name Joseph A. Baker, which was found among the suspected Segal-Hipple securities in the vaults of the Real Estate Trust Company, is a mystery being worked upon by Dist.-Atty. Bell. Joseph A. Baker has been dead for more than three years. While it is known that Baker and Segal had offices in the same building years ago, it has not been learned that they had any business dealings with each other.

The loan is secured by $120,000 in first preferred 6 per cent. bonds of the Champion Iron and Separator Company, one of Adolph Segal's many enterprises.

Baker, whose name is signed to the note, was in the real estate business at the same time that Segal was conducting a brokerage business. The two were close friends. Members of Baker's family said they were unaware that he had ever given President Hipple his note for any amount. In fact, they did not believe Baker was acquainted with Hipple. In view of the fact that similar notes for large amounts secured by worthless collateral and signed apparently by fictitious persons, Bell and Receiver Earle expressed the fear that his note may be another evidence of Hipple's wildcat financering.

The loan made to Segal by President Hipple aggregated more than $5,000,000 and his securities are believed to be worth about $2,000,000. Consequently the directors will subscribe something more than $3,000,000.

A statement is made tonight by Rev. Dr. Roberts, stated clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, who announces that in addition to the $30,000 of the trust funds of the trustees of the church, which was lost in the collapse of the trust company, the deposits, amounting to about $120,000, are also involved. These deposits were the current funds of the Board of Ministerial Relief, the trustees of the Board of Publication and Subbath-School Work, the trustees of the General Assembly, the stated clerk of the General Assembly and the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

Welching German Companies to Feel the Blow.

Twenty Thousand Actions Soon to Be Brought.

Jennings Goes East to Inspect Immigration.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Not less than 20,000 suits against welching German fire insurance companies will be brought in the next few months to secure payment of policies for which liability is denied. Litigation unparalleled in magnitude in this line is about to begin. The losses of policy holders who refused to German and Austrian welchers for payment are estimated at $20,000,000 in round numbers. The sum will not exceed even that. The existing causes of loss are made by companies. Many policies were burned and some companies have failed to supply any data to guide those who are trying to recover.

Within the next fortnight many suits will be prepared to be submitted to the United States Circuit Court in this city. An equal or greater number will be shaped up for presentation to courts of Germany and Austria.

MRS. MILNER KILLED.

AUTO MAKES FATAL PLUNGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, Sept. 9.—As the result of the overturning of an automobile when rounding a sharp curve near Milpitas, a few miles north of this city, early this morning, Mrs. Camille B. Milner of Oakland is dead and Miss Marian Milner, a Berkeley student, lies in critical condition with a possibly fractured skull.

The women were accompanied on their fatal ride by two Berkeley students, John B. Isaacs, Jr., whose father is consulting engineer for the German system, and Walter M. Clark, son of J. Ross Clark, vice-president of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad, and nephew of United States Senator Clark of Montana.

The party started from Oakland at 4 o'clock Saturday night for an outing tour, to this city. Isaacs handled the car which was running at high speed as it struck the curve, one of the wheels giving way and the machine plunging into the ditch by the roadside. Mrs. Milner was instantly killed to death under the massive car, and Miss Vanhorn sustained what is believed to be a fracture of the skull. Young Clark escaped.

Mrs. Milner, according to the story of her male companions, is the wife of Charles Milner, formerly a San Francisco merchants from whom she has been estranged. She is said to have resided with her mother at No. 1 Twenty-third street, Oakland. Miss Milner is about 20 years old and a student in Berkeley.

Both young men are members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity of the University of California.

LEAVES FOR INSPECTION.

RUFUS JENNINGS GOES EAST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Rufus P. Jennings, chairman of the California Immigration Committee, will leave for an extended trip throughout the East today for the purpose of making a close study of conditions in the prominent cities.

He will spend some time in New York examining the immigration conditions for the purpose of placing the California bureau of the committee on a better touch with the better classes of immigrants in order to induce them to make California their homes. Jennings also will visit Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore and Chicago to study conditions in order to broaden the scheme of publicity of the committee so as to make it applicable to each locality. The work of the California bureau will be broadened according to plans studied out by Jennings.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—While walking along Fillmore street last night Louis Spalo, a waiter, encountered a crowd said to be strike-breakers. Just as he passed, a revolver cartridge, fired by one of the men slipped from the fellow's pocket, struck the pavement, was discharged and sent a bullet into Spalo's head.

Immediately on the discharge of the gun the men scattered in all directions, leaving Spalo unconscious on the street. Passers-by summoned the police patrol, and he was taken to the Emergency Hospital. His wound may prove fatal.

SINGS HERSELF OUT OF JAIL.

Mary Parsons, Colored, Released by Oswego, Kan., Officials for Poignant Reasons.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OSWEGO (Kan.) Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch] Mary Weathers, a negro woman from Parsons, who has spent the greater part of the past two years in the County Jail here, has been released from the bastile for rather a unique cause. She is a persistent singer, and has a sonorous voice, but little regard for the musical effect.

As a result of her singing, she made life so miserable for persons in the vicinity of the jail that the commissioners decided to release her if she would leave the country permanently and take her musical aspirations with her.

Mary shook the dust from her feet, ignorant of the fact that she had sung herself out of jail.

Jennings Goes East to Inspect Immigration.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Not less than 20,000 suits against watching German fire insurance companies will be brought in the next few months to secure payment of policies for which liability is denied. Litigation unparalleled in magnitude in this line is about to begin. The names of policy holders who have sued German and Austrian companies for payment are estimated at 20,000 in round numbers. The sum involved even that. The existing losses of loss are made by companies. Many policies were burned and some companies have failed to leave any data to guide those who are trying to recover.

Within the next fortnight many suits will be prepared to be submitted to the United States Circuit Court in this city. An equal or greater number will be shaped up for presentation to courts of Germany and Austria.

888. MILNER KILLED.

AUTO MAKES FATAL PLUNGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—As the result of the overturning of an automobile when taking a sharp curve near Milpitas, a few miles north of this city, early this morning, Mrs. Camille B. Milner was killed and Miss Marian Milner is dead. Miss Marian Milner, a Berkeley student, lies in a critical condition with a possibly fractured skull.

The women were accompanied on the fatal ride by two Berkeley students, John R. Isaacs, Jr., whose father is a consulting engineer for the Hetch Hetchy system, and Walter M. Clark, son of J. Ross Clark, vice-president of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad, and nephew of United States Senator Clark of Montana.

The party started from Oakland at 1 o'clock Saturday night for an outing over, to this city. Isaacs handling the car which was running at high speed as it struck the curve, one front wheel giving way and the machine leaping into the ditch by the roadside. Mrs. Milner was instantly killed, death under the massive body of the Vanhorn sustained what is believed to be a fracture of the skull. Young Clark escaped.

Isaacs, according to the story told by companions, is the wife of Mrs. Milner, formerly a San Francisco merchants from whom she was estranged. She is said to have resided with her mother at No. [illegible] Thirty-third street, Oakland. Miss Milner is about 20 years old and was born in Berkeley.

The young men are members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity of the University of California.

JENNINGS GOES EAST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Rufus P. Jennings, chairman of the California Immigration Committee, will leave for the East on a flying trip throughout the East for the purpose of making a study of conditions in the promised land.

He will spend some time in New York discussing the immigration conditions for the purpose of placing the matter before the committee on immigration with the better classes of citizens in order to induce them to settle in California their homes.

Mr. Jennings also will visit Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore and Chicago to study conditions in order to perfect the scheme of publicity of the committee so as to make it applicable to each locality. The work of the immigration bureau will be broadened materially as plans studied out by Jennings

WOMAN SINGS HERSELF OUT OF JAIL.

Mary Parsons, Colored, Released by Olathe, Kan., Officials for Poignant Reasons.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

OLATHE (Kan.) Sept. 9.—[Special Dispatch] Mary Parsons, a negro woman from Kansas City, who has spent the greater part of the past two years in the County Jail here, was released from the jail for rather a unique reason. She is a persistent singer, and has a sonorous voice, but lacks training for the musical effects.

THUGGERY REIGNS.

the hill and the former immediately telephoned the City Hall police station. When the officers arrived Merton said, "I only did it for fun."

It is highly probable that the union carmen will testify in the defense of Merton and that Livernash will do his utmost to clear the drunken striker who says that he is "out to get" the the United Railroads and means to get them."

The United Railroads, however, take a very serious view of the case and believe that such union thugs are a menace to the lives of those who travel on street cars.

ANOTHER BOLD CRIME.

A crime that for boldness and daring is unparalleled in the annals of San Francisco police records, took place this evening shortly before 6 o'clock, when Ralph Abdela, one of Farley's strike breakers who was paid off and was on his way to Oakland, was stopped on a Geary-street car at the corner of Geary and Taylor streets, by four men. One of them dealt Abdela a crashing blow upon the temple with a club.

The victim says that the crime was committed by union pickets who followed him from the car barn. He is positive of this. At the time the daring outrage was perpetrated, Abdela was inside the car with the four men.

He held between his feet a small grip, containing all of his possessions, with the exception of $60 in cash, which he carried in a purse in his rear pocket. The tallest of the four, who was sitting close to Abdela delivered the blow.

GRAB GRIP AND RUN.

After he was struck, the grip was snatched from between Abdela's feet, and the four then hurriedly jumped from the car while it was in motion, and made their way down Taylor street to O'Farrell. Abdela stumbled to the front platform, where two passengers were sitting, and incoherently cried that he had been robbed. One of the passengers immediately jumped from the car and followed the thugs.

The passenger, who refused to give his name, said that three of the men jumped aboard an out-bound Ellis-street car at the corner of Ellis and Leavenworth streets. The fourth man had disappeared among the ruins in the neighborhood.

UNION PICKETS RECOGNIZED.

Abdela says that the men who attacked him were union pickets, who had followed him from the Turk and Fillmore-street car barn. According to his story, he had left the barn after being paid off, with the intention of going to Oakland. He had boarded a Fillmore-street car and been carried to the end of the line before he discovered that he was on the wrong car. He returned to Geary street, and found the men watching him, and then took a Geary-street car for the ferry.

The four men still followed him. When at Taylor street, the tallest of the four men demanded $10 in order to pay Abdela's entrance fee to the Carpenter's Union. Abdela refused, saying that he did nto care to join the union. The next moment he received the blow on the temple.

Abdela makes an ugly accusation against the conductor of the Geary-street car, whose name has not been learned.

INVOLVES CONDUCTOR.

According to Abdela, the four men held a whispered consultation with the conductor, laughing and looking in Abdela's direction. When the attack was made, the conductor, according to Abdela, retired to the front of the car.

The story of Abdela, to a certain extent, is borne out by passengers who chased the thugs, who said that the conductor roughly asked Abdela, when the latter stumbled, bleeding and dazed to the front platform, what he was dropping blood all over the car for.

Abdela has reported the matter to the police, and it is probable that some action will be taken toward securing the men who perpetrated the outrage and the conductor, who apparently was cognizant of the attack. At a late hour, practically nothing had been done by the police.

SHOOTING IN SALOON.

Charles Colignan, who shot and probably fatally wounded Frank Vennechol in the latter's saloon at an early hour this morning, with two companions, Charles J. Blake and Frank O'Connor, who took part in the fracas just before the shot was fired, was a strike-breaker imported to this city by Farley.

While Vennechol lay on the floor of the saloon, weak from loss of blood, Deputy Dist.-Atty. George M. Kelly of the bond and warrant clerk's office, took his dying statement. At this time the strike-breakers were sitting handcuffed on chairs under guard of Special Policeman John J. Flannigan. Pointing his hand toward the trio and indicating Colignan, Vennechol said:

NAMES ASSAILANT.

"That is the man who shot me. The one in the middle, with the short beard."

Vennechol claims that the men were about to hold up the saloon and therefore, he ordered them out.

"This," he says, "they refused to do, so I looked for my gun but didn't find it. I ran around the bar and struck the biggest fellow, who fell like a log. Then I struck the other big fellow who partly wheeled and drew his gun. Then I started for the little fellow who was near the door. Before I reached him, he drew his gun and shot me in the chest. I knew by the talk I overheard that the men were strike-breakers and I feared trouble from them."

The fact develops that Vennechol is a strong supporter of the union's position in the second strike and is a members of the Barkeepers' Union.

FARLEY MAN BEATEN.

Charles Wells, a strike breaker brought from Hoboken, N. J., was beaten into insensibility by four union pickets at th ecorner of Turk and Fillmore streets at 7 o'clock this evening.

Patrolman O'Dowd heard the man's cries for help, and only succeeded in scattering the thugs and frightening them away. The patrolman telephoned to the police station and the injured man was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital, where a gaping laceration of the head, and cuts about his body, were dressed.

Wells, upon regaining his senses, told his story of the villajnous attack, saying:

"I had just left the barn to take a little sight-seeing trip about the city. Other Farley men who had left the barn last night, told me to look out for union pickets, as their steps had been dogged. While I was thinking of this, four men jumped upon me from the rear, cursing me and calling me a scab.

"I remember seeing stars and rolling into the gutter. The last thing I remember is that they kicked me in the head and in the side. I am sure they were union pickets."

ATTACKS ARE ALARMING.

These attacks of union brutes upon non-union men which are of nightly occurrence in this city, are most alarming. The police department, however, is inactive, greatly increasing the seriousness of the conditions that constitute a reign of lawlessness.

A well-earned vacation was taken today by President Calhoun and his assistant, Thornwell Mullaly, of the United Railroads. Accompanied by George H. Davis of Ford, Bacon & Davis, engineers, of New York, who superintend the engineering departments of all of Calhoun's railroad interests, and by Patrick Calhoun, Jr., the railroad men left in an automobile at 9 o'clock this morning for Santa Cruz. They will not return to San Francisco until tomorrow evening.

CONFERENCE FACES SNAG.

Today's developments in the strike situation strongly indicate that disruption confronts the recently-formed association of seven unions, whose members were employés of the United Railroads. Although the organization is still in existence, there is no harmony among the men, who wrangle over the issue of the open shop, and they still threaten the city with another strike.

Representatives of the affiliated unions are unable to decide upon an arbitrator to represent them on the board of three, and indications are that days will pass before a satisfactory third member of the board will be agreed to by the disgruntled unions, who, if they cannot have matters all their own way, practically refuse to abide by the various agreements they have made with the United Railroads. Their attitude shows clearly that their word is worthless.

FIREMEN UNDECIDED.

There is likelihood that the stationary firemen will take some action contrary to the plan of action which was decided upon by the conference, and as it was only with difficulty that the electrical workers were brought around to an attitude of acceptance of the plan to return to work.

Track workers have declined to accept the proposition which Patrick Calhoun presented to them and the spirit of these men is opposed to anything like partial rescinding of their demands.

"There has been so many conflicting interests," said Richard Cornelius, president of the Carmen's Union, today, "that so far little has been done toward consummating the arbitration board; there is, however, no necessity for speedy action. We are looking out for our interests and the railroad will have to hold its horses until we get ready to square things.

"The question to be decided is a very important one to the union. If the negotiations should be extended beyond the two weeks which have been set as the limit, I do not think that necessarily there would be a break.

"RAILROAD MUST WAIT."

"We have decided to arbitrate but the railroad company will have to sweat. We will arbitrate when we get good and ready."

"We will not return to work by the side of the scabs the railroad company has employed," said Charles Stryker, the union's delegate to the joint conference, yesterday. "When we were instructed to return to work we reported for duty, but were told that we would have to await vacancies. We will continue in the position we have already adopted."

Abdela's declaration is at variance with a statement made by Worthington this afternoon.

"The Firemen's Union has advised the men to return to work," he said. "The union cannot compel men to return to a job if they do not want to, but it can declare the job fair. They have been advised that they may return to the United Railroads' employ."

The linemen of the Electrical Workers' Union may report for work Tuesday morning, and shop workers and station men tomorrow morning. This decision was reached at a meeting of the union held this afternoon at union headquarters.

POLICE CLUB IN RIOT.

James Sullivan, union laborer, charged with inciting a riot; Walter Clifford, union carpenter, charged with assault with a deadly weapon; George McKenna, union printer, charged with battery; are under arrest as a result of a riot near the corner of Mission and Twenty-second streets tonight, during which the policemen who made the arrests were stoned and clubbed, and all of the windows in the undertaking establishment of Baker & Luntz were smashed, and shots were fired into a howling mob.

This riot was the result of an attempt of Patrolman James Gallagher to drive away the thugs who had assaulted a strike-breaker. A union man had called a strike-breaker a scab and the two men were fighting when the officer appeared upon the scene.

When he attempted to make the arrests, George McKenna struck him back of the ear, felling him to the ground and dazing him. But Gallagher regained his feet and beat McKenna into submission with his night stick.

MOB BECOMES WILD.

The mob now became wild and cobble-stones and brickbats were hurled at the patrolman as he struggled through the crowd with his prisoner to the establishment of Baker & Lunts near the corner of Twenty-third street.

His helmet was crushed by a brickbat. He was cut about the head, but he succeeded in getting inside the door. The mob continued to throw missles of all kinds, breaking every window in the front of the building and damaging the woodwork.

Dan Spellman, another patrolman, appeared upon the scene and at once turned in a riot call at the Central Police Station. The mob attacked him as he tried to telephone from the patrol box, and he was forced to use the instrument in the undertaking establishment.

A member of the firm opened fire upon the mob with a revolver, driving the rioters back. The patrol wagon arrived with a squad of policemen, and James Sullivan was arrested as leader of the gang who hurled the missiles.

ROCK HURLER SUBDUED.

As the wagon moved away, Walter Clifford hurled a rock at the patrol wagon, striking one of the officers, and he was subdued only after a hard struggle, and was thrown into the wagon.

The riot occurred in one of the toughest sections of the city, and shows only too clearly that the union sympathizers of the recent strikers in all lines of trade are in an uprising over the open-shop issue.

The unions of San Francisco are determined to strangle industrial freedom here. Conditions justify the statement that there is grave danger of a universal strike in an attempt to defeat the open-shop issue which President Calhoun has forced down the fiery throat of the labor council.

Attempts were made today by the jawsmiths to draw the building trades unions into the controversy. It is known that union Mayor Schmitz and "White-livered Nash" feel that the political power of the union have been damaged by Calhoun's victories over the unions who struck. In the open shop they see an entering wedge which, forced by public opinion, will open the door of industrial freedom for San Francisco.

Mother Receives News She Is in Pittsburgh.

Chief of Police Auble Sends Orders to Get Her.

That pretty dark-haired black-eyed Dawn Fisher, missing from her home, No. 625 San Julian street, since the morning of May 3, is alive, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fisher are convinced. The girl has been traced to Pittsburgh, and information in the hands of the authorities at that place may result in finding her.

Definite knowledge of the actions of their daughter after she left home has been learned by the parents. Instead of going to the Brownsberger School the morning she left home for the last time, Dawn applied to a manager of a local theater for a position. She had practiced song and dance sketches at home and it was her ambition to go on the stage.

Though she failed to secure a position she was successful in finding friends who promised to aid her in realizing her hopes. She left Los Angeles with a man and woman who appeared in a vaudeville turn at a local theater last May. Dawn traveled with the company, of which the man and his wife were members, and appeared in the larger towns between here and New York, where the company disbanded.

IN PITTSBURGH.

After leaving New York little 15-year-old Dawn Fisher is known to have gone to Pittsburgh with the man and woman, presumably to study for the stage. It is said to be the intention of her captors to keep Dawn in Pittsburgh until October 1.

Acting on definite information concerning the whereabouts of her lost daughter, Mrs. Fisher has wired the police of Pittsburgh to keep a sharp lookout for the girl. She has also sent a description of the child, prepared by Chief of Police Auble, together with the latest portrait.

DAWN FISHER,
missing Los Angeles girl who has been traced to Pittsburgh.

At her home last night, Mrs. Fisher told a Times reporter that she has information that leads her to believe her daughter has spent some time in Pittsburgh. The mother hopes to hear news of the absent child within a few days.

"I have tried to keep this affair as quiet as possible," said Mrs. Fisher, "and I told the police of Pittsburgh that I did not want a word of this later news to get out. If my daughter hears of this of course she can keep out of sight and make it much more difficult for us to locate her.

CHOSEN LIFE WORK.

"As a child Dawn had a desire to go on the stage. I have no doubt but she is following the desire with all the intensity of her nature. She knows how to care for herself though she is so young. While I would like to know just where she is, I am satisfied that she is well and is preparing herself for her chosen life work.

"While I am not at liberty to tell all I know and cannot divulge the name of my informant, I have definite news of Dawn and I know that she left Los Angeles in company with a man and woman who have been seen in Pittsburgh."

The case of Dawn Fisher is one of the most peculiar with which the police of Los Angeles have ever had to deal. When she disappeared more than four months ago there were those who said she would return after dark and others who gave her twenty-four hours to remain away from home. The little business-college student baffled every one.

ALL TRACE WAS LOST.

Though the most careful search was made in Los Angeles and the surrounding towns no trace of the girl was had. She dropped as completely out of sight that May morning after she left home with her books under her arm for the schoolhouse, as if she had vanished into the ether.

Dawn did not answer to her name at the Brownsberger School that day, nor did any of her playmates see her at any time. She went directly to one of the theaters, asked for a position, and then began the journey which has apparently taken her across the continent.

Another mysterious circumstance surrounding the disappearance of the little girl is the fact that her dog "Tray" also left town. The dog remained in the house on May 3, and that night showed signs of great uneasiness. The following morning "Tray" was let out and the old dog went barking up the street to return no more. It is thought Dawn refused to go without the animal, and that the parties with whom she traveled returned for "Tray."

SHOWED GREAT TALENT.

The child would be a rare catch for any one desiring to make capital of her appearance on the stage. She had displayed remarkable talent in private theatricals, had a fine voice, and could dance well. She is vivacious and attractive and has a wealth of beautiful dark hair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are anxious to avoid notoriety and have been forced, much against their will, to take a conspicuous part in the search for their daughter, which has extended across a continent.

When the body of the murdered woman was found in Temescal Cañon there were anxious hearts in the Fisher home and for some time the awful fear possessed the hearts of the parents that the grewsome find might be the body of their loved child. The description of the woman and that of Dawn Fisher do not tally.

DEATH TAKES J. C. NEWITT.

NOTED ADVERTISER PASSES AT HIS HOME.

To His Efforts Largely Are Due the Adoption of Modern Methods in the Promotion of Publicity in Los Angeles Through the Discriminate Use of Newspaper Space.

After an illness which had continued for a year and which had kept him to his house for ten days, J. C. Newitt died at his Hollywood home at noon yesterday.

Mr. Newitt leaves a widow but no children. He was born in Little Falls, N. Y., His age was 41.

Starting at the foot of the ladder when he came to Los Angeles in 1894 he climbed the succeeding rounds rapidly and soon became one of the big factors in making Los Angeles a chief advertising city of the United States.

At the time of his death Mr. Newitt had accumulated a good deal of property. He leaves a snug fortune in this world's goods.

J. C. Newitt, who died yesterday.

Mr. Newitt was the dean of the advertising agents of Los Angeles and his reputation extended over the continent. His business success was great and was due to a broad and keen mentality as well as to a special aptitude for the work. His grasp of advertising problems was unfailing and his judgment was sure. His good counsel and excellent typographical ideas have been of inestimable service in placing Los Angeles advertising on a plane that is the envy of many other large cities. Merchants and newspapers alike are under obligations to him. Mr. Newitt was blessed with a genial nature and was full of public spirit. In many ways the community was his debtor.

The funeral will be held at the home at Prospect avenue and Hartford street, Hollywood, at 11 a.m. Wednesday. The interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

MADE UNCONSCIOUS BY ROCK.

Waiter Injured on Head by a Stone Thrown Through Window of Restaurant.

Amadeo Costanzi, a waiter at a restaurant at No. 610 San Fernando street, was struck by a stone thrown last night about 8 o'clock by one of several men previously ejected from the place. Costanzi sustained a deep wound on the left temple, and was rendered unconscious. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital.

Several men entered the place and raised a disturbance. The proprietor and one of the men ejected the crowd. For a time they stood about the door and made threats, but finally left. Suddenly a huge stone was hurled through the window, striking Costanzi.

August Villa, Frank Villa and Joe Velencia were arrested by a patrolman on the charge of suspicion. It is thought that they belonged to the party of disturbers.

MESSENGER BOY ARRESTED.

John Carpenter, a messenger boy, was arrested last evening on a charge of disturbing the peace. According to the police, Carpenter attacked a man on North Main street early yesterday and struck him several times.

Passes Through the City on His Way East from Hunting Trip in Colorado.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., was here last night after a three weeks' hunting trip in Colorado. He alighted from a Burlington train and took a train for the East.

"I had a bully time. Who won the boat race?" was the response of young Roosevelt to the greetings of the few who met him at the train.

He said he expected to play some football at Harvard, although he feared that he is too light to make his class team.

RENOMINATED JONAH.

HONOLULU, Sept. 9.—The Republican Territorial convention held yesterday on the Island of Maui unanimously renominated Jonah Kalaniaole, delegate to Congress. In a speech accepting the nomination, Kalaniaole deprecated making the race question a political issue.

The steamer Kinau, when returning to Honolulu with delegates from the convention, ran ashore. She was pulled off half an hour later.

NEAR DEATH IN SPEED LIMIT.

PATROLMAN KING BUTTED IN AND WAS BUTTED OUT.

Chased an Automobile and Got Tangled With a Bicyclist, Then Another Motor Car "Scrapped" With a Trolley and Nearly Knocked Out the Half-stunned Policeman.

Patrolman E. C. King twice narrowly escaped instant death yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock at Pico and Main streets. After being hurled fifty feet along the pavement in a collision with Morris Arons, a cyclist, in business at No. 521 South Main street, while dashing after a motor car at the rate of thirty miles an hour, the officer was about to regain his feet when a Main-street car tossed an automobile within two feet of him.

Had the chauffeur of the automobile lost his head and not swerved his machine to the right, King would have been crushed beneath the heavy wheels of the vehicle. King was just about to rise to his feet after his terrible fall when the car and the motor collided. The terrific impact tossed the machine across the pavement within a few feet of the stunned policeman and left it directly in his path still running. Evidently the driver of the motor was cool-headed for he turned his car out of the way and only missed King a few inches and clattered down the sidewalk 200 yards before stopping.

In response to orders from the captain's office, Officers King and George Home, recently detailed on motorcycles, went out on South Main street to watch for autoists violating the speed ordinance. The officers had chased several machines and were riding slowly north on Main street in the vicinity of Ninth, when they saw a machine approaching them in the opposite direction running at a high rate of speed.

Patrolman Home made a quick turn to parallel the course of the automobile leaving King some few yards behind. About a block before King reached the place of the collision he attained a speed of thirty miles an hour.

"When my machine was about fifty feet north of Pico street," said King, "I saw that a man on a bicycle was approaching Main street and had his head well down between his arms. A second later he turned north. Crying as loudly as I could I attracted his attention, but to my horror I saw him loose control of his bicycle.

"The next thing I knew we had collided. Up through the air I shot while he turned several somersaults and fell. I alighted on the sidewalk on the other side of the street, but strange to say I was only slightly stunned and bruised. I struggled to my feet and looked toward the place I thought Arons lay.

"A crash, preceded by the tooting of an automobile horn and the clanging of a street-car bell, occurred and a huge black object loomed up within a few feet of me. I sank back but it had passed in a moment and all was quiet. When I collected myself I saw that car No. 371 had struck an automobile."

From another witness it was learned that as King was about to regain his feet the car and automobile collided. The car was running north on Main street and the cotorcar was dashing from Pico street north on Main street. It crossed the track just in front, but the rear of the machine came in contact with the front of the car.

"It seemed to boost the motor directly onto the officer," said the witness, "but as the automobile struck the pavement it swerved around him and proceeded some distance down the sidewalk. The driver of the automobile jumped out and looked over his machine. After finding that it had been only badly battered he drove away with it."

King's motorcycle was wrecked. The front wheel was broken, the frame buckled in several places and several of the fittings broken. The officer shows no visable signs of injury from his awful fall. Morris Arons, proprietor of a South Main street pool hall, did not fare so well. His hands were severely larcerated and his body was bruised.

After assisting Arons to his feet the officer went to the assistance of the chauffeur, but he was about to pull away from the scene and answered the inquiry of the officers by saying that only the rear wheel and the toneau of his machine had been damaged. Arons's wrecked bicycle was placed in a near-by house and the motorcyle was sent to the repair shop.

LOCOMOTIVES BATTLE TODAY.

METAL MONSTERS READY FOR SPECTACULAR SMASH.

Like War Horses Both Are Sniffing the Strife from Afar—Light Breakfasts of Coal and Water Prepare Them for the Fierce Fray of Admission Day.

Everything is in readiness for the locomotive collision at Agricultural Park today and the affair promises to be the most spectacular event ever shown in the West. Over the mile of track laid for the smash both engines were run yesterday afternoon and the indications point to a high rate of speed being attained today.

Trained to the minute, the iron gladiators will each be fed a light breakfast of twenty-one tons of soft coal and 2500 gallons of water this morning and each will be carefully groomed.

Engine No. 13 has the advantage in weight. The eccentric old fighter is ready for the battle of its life. Snorting with impatience and sniffing the battle from afar, Engineer P. M. Raymond is confident his pet will carry off the honors.

"Skidoo 23" is the special pride of Engineer N. P. Stancer, who will stand guard at the throttle when the fight begins. Though his metal charge is under weight, the throttle-man is sure he will smash the insides out of his antagonist.

Both engines are in fine fettle. They move like clockwork and gave a good account of themselves in the preliminary trial yesterday afternoon. It is declared that a speed of forty-five miles an hour will be attained today before the smash. The masses of shining metal should come together with a fearful impact.

Like prize fighters training for a championship match, both engines have been carefully watched by the men in charge and there is a rivalry among them as to which has shown the best points thus far. The food supply of each has been carefully calculated and there is no danger of an attack of indigestion. Their wind is fine and they are ready for the fiercest blow in the solar plexus, confident they can stand the shock of the hardest body smash.

Like giant heavyweights they wheeze and blow in their exertions to get into condition. Both have put on weight in spite of the rigorous training and special rules of diet which have been observed. They will whistle their defiance at each other as they plunge into the first round.

The battle royal is for the heavyweight locomotive championship of the world and a belt—the belt to be received by the vanquished engine during the crash. The two have a list of battles which would make James Jeffries envious. No. 13 has figured in the most conquests, though both are as yet undefeated.

Ten-wheeler battles pulled off before a crowd of 40,000 people are uncommon and the trainers have taken special precaution to prevent a stampede of their pets, as most of the battles in which the principals of today have figured have been on lonely mountain grades with only a silent string of box cars as spectators.

The engineers in charge of the "Locos" have each had experience in smashups and both know their business. When they turn their charges loose today for the final crash they will see to it that each has a fair chance by having reached a high speed.

Should it be necessary they declare their intention of riding to within a hundred feet of the point of collision or even closer. Then the ring will be given to the two scrappers and the best should win.

Hempel and Morley declare that every precaution has been taken to provide against an accident. The crowd will be handled by 300 special police and detectives.

An excellent view of the collision can be obtained from any part of Agricultural Park. Special cars on a one-minute service as well as the regular cars will be operated all over the city and the crowds will be moved in record time, say those in charge of the affair.

ARRESTED AS SNEAK-THIEF.

Fred Coals was arrested yesterday by special officers in a rooming-house on Commercial street on a charge of petit larceny. According to the statement of detectives, Coals stole a number of articles from the rooms of a guest of the house. Coals says he is innocent. He was locked up.

BOYS ACCUSED OF BURGLARY.

Harry Hanson and Raymond Kolb, two boys, were arrested last night on a charge of robbing a grocery store on Twenty-third street, near Mateo street. The detectives claim that one of the lads admitted that he and his companion burglarized the store.

FIRST FED DAINTIES, THEN DEATH-DOOMED.

BEEFSTEAK, pork chops, veal cutlets, ham or sausage—what shall it be? An astonishing array of meats for the delectation of dogs of high and low degree who happen to be observing at the city pound appears at that canine resort every morning. The pound-kept dogs fed well? Just look over the array above and add to it all that occurs to your mind as being served at one of the best patronized hotel dining-rooms in this city, and you will have the bill of fare set daily before Fido, Jack, Sport and Tiny.

To be sure, a gnawing of close-picked bone with liberty would doubtless set better with Rover than a dinner of meat on behind close-set iron bars, and those dogs that fall in the snare of the catcher have a keen sense of the loss of liberty, begging piteously for their release whenever one goes near their kennels.

But as to food, why, there's many a family in Los Angeles that does not [illegible] a lay-out of choice meats as [illegible] daily find their way to the [illegible] down on Porter street.

TITBITS FOR DOGGIES.

[illegible] morning all the meats from [illegible] bottles at the Natick House [illegible] and broken bread and meats [illegible] tables is sent to the dog resort. Sometimes it comes down hot, and the savory steam rises to the appetites of the dogs, big fellows who poke their cold noses between the bars and await impatiently the spreading of the feast. Each contributes dainties.

The pound is an interesting place. Its distressing features, [illegible] is a lover of animals, and [illegible] for the four-footed fellows [illegible] to await their redemption or [illegible] death. Those who have [illegible]ptions say that Los Angeles [illegible] A combination of six chemicals is used, and Poundkeeper Vacher declares that death results within from nine to fifteen seconds.

The scalps are taken, and each month the inspector from the city health department goes down and checks up on the number of canines sent to dog heaven. Last month he checked up on 690 scalps, but this was an accumulation of over two months, because of an omission of the official visitation. There is an average catch of twenty dogs a day.

And now, unlicensed dogs, beware! An expert is after you, and he'll catch you if he can. Vacher has engaged the services of Rolla McClellan, an expert dog catcher, with a long and varied experience in San Francisco, Oakland and San José. Mac is "laying out" to cut a wide swath in dogdom, and he has as his assistant B. Britt, who "learned the trade," as Vacher expresses it, right here in Los Angeles, and knows local conditions.

The city pound also has a regular run of horse visitors. These generally are promptly redeemed. The charge is $2 for pounding fee and 50 cents per day for keeping and feed—a cheaper rate than could be secured at any rental stable. The horses average about five a week. Very few cattle find they way to the city pound, and occasionally there is a goat or a sheep.

Say, mister, can't we go home?

Oh, please give us our freedom!

COURSE IN PEDAGOGY.

Prospective Teachers May Secure Diplomas by Taking Special Work at Methodist College.

Dr. James H. Hoose, Ph.D. of the department of philosophy and pedagogy at the University of Southern California, has arranged for a course of education and pedagogy which will be on a par with the graduation requirements of the State universities and which it is expected will meet the conditions required for a teachers' certificate from the State Board of Education. This advance in the curriculum of the university, will not be in the nature of an experiment.

Dr. Hoose is confident the course will prove of great value to prospective teachers. Twenty-two continuous years of pedagogical work as head of a large normal school of New York and further experience as professor of philosophy at the local Methodist institution, have thoroughly qualified Dr. Hoose for his position. Many of the leading educators of this country testify to his worth, to his wide attainments as a pedagogue and scholar, and to his capacity as a teacher.

The course will be twelve hours and will cover the principles of education, followed by the different nations of history, commencing with China and Japan, on through Greece and Rome and the medieval peoples, thus to modern times, examining critically the theories of modern reformers, discussing also the present theories and practices. The last term of the course will be devoted principally to a critical investigation of the psychology of the processes of learning.

Dr. Hoose has arranged the course only after advising carefully with Superintendent Moore of the city schools and director of the summer school of Berkeley, and Dr. Millspaugh, at the head of the State Normal School, both members of the State Board of Education, and the work involved in the course will be coincident with the required work of the State Board of Examiners.

President Bovard also announces that graduates of the university may, in an additional year's study, at the State Normal School, secure State certificates for High School teachers, as in the case of graduates of the State universities.

The national conventions of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will meet separately at Milwaukee.

The new curate possesses the great advantage of youth, and in the fields of Episcopal work about Oxnard and Hueneme, where he has been busily engaged for some time, he has shown unusual capability for the practical side of church life.

His accomplishments for both the material and intellectual sides of parish life have been many, and are his best recommendations.

HOW MANY OF US?

Fail to Select Food Nature Demands to Ward Off Ailments.

A Kentucky lady, speaking about food, says: "I was accustomed to eating all kinds of ordinary food until, for some reason, indigestion and nervous prostration set in.

"After I had run down seriously my attention was called to the necessity of some change in my diet, and I discontinued my ordinary breakfast and began using Grape-Nuts with a good quantity of rich cream.

In a few days my condition changed in a remarkable way, and I began to have a strength that I had never been possessed of before, a vigor of body and a poise of mind that amazed me. It was entirely new in my experience.

"My former attacks of indigestion had been accompanied by heat flashes, and many times my condition was distressing with blind spells of dizziness, rush of blood to the head and neuralgic pains in the chest.

"Since using Grape-Nuts alone for breakfast I have been free from these troubles, except at times when I have indulged in rich, greasy foods in quantity, then I would be warned by a pain under the left shoulder blade, and unless I heeded the warning the old trouble would come back, but when I finally got to know where these troubles originated I returned to my Grape-Nuts and cream and the pain and disturbance left very quickly.

"I am now in prime health as a result of my use of Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The trouble with the reformed spelling is that it looks so "ornery" in print.

It may be noticed that numerous Napoleons of finance are finding their St. Helenas right along.

One thing is certain. The country can better afford to adopt spelling reform than tariff reform.

Canada is remarkably free from divorce. She even declines to divorce herself from Great Britain.

The fear that there is only one man in the Republican party who can beat Bryan is rapidly subsiding.

Speaking of the white man's burden, Battling Nelson has now about as clear an idea of it as anybody.

The Pinhead McCarthys do not amount to much when they run up against men like Patrick Calhoun.

Mr. Bryan announces that he is going South. According to competent critics he has been going South all the time.

California has been in the American Union fifty-six years. And she is just as glad to be there now as she ever was.

New York City claims she will have a population of 12,000,000 in 1940. She must think she has a chance to beat Los Angeles.

It is now estimated that John D. Rockefeller controls over $5,000,000,000. Who controls the other 75 cents or so, is not stated.

A man who has written a book on "American Insects" makes no reference to fleas. He probably classifies the flea as a bird.

Sometimes we think entirely too much is expected of the chickens of this country. New York City alone demands 5,000,000 eggs a day.

California's trade with Japan, last year, amounted to $18,000,000. But the delegates to the Santa Cruz convention were probably not aware of it.

The English hop crop has been greatly endangered this year by the attacks of a green fly. As yet, however, no suspicion attaches to the Irish.

Magazine and book publishers are still running stories of New England life. And yet, foreign critics say American writers are lacking in imagination.

A new worm has been discovered and has been called the diplozoon. If it has a grain of spunk in its system it will turn after being called by such a name as that.

Evidently Southern California does not get all the tourist trade. The annual income of the hotel proprietors of Switzerland is carefully estimated to be $30,000,000.

An old organ grinder recently died in New York leaving an estate worth $50,000 behind him. He probably made most of the money by accepting bribes to quit playing.

Disinterested judges of the controversy are inclining to the opinion that while Roger Sullivan doesn't talk as much as William J. Bryan, he says more when he does talk.

In London a child is born every three minutes, but in other respects she is outdistanced by several cities in this country. For instance, in New York a sucker is born every two seconds.

After all, our navy is not such an expensive affair. As it is at present constituted it has cost only $114,000,000. There are several American citizens who could pay for it outright and not miss the money.

Owing to some legal technicality, an Oklahoma bank that wants to go out of business cannot do so. What the institution needs is a president like Stensland. He'd put it out of business fast enough.

If Thomas Jefferson, bitter foe that he was of "centralization," could rise from his grave to hear Bryan's advocacy of government ownership of railroads, he would undoubtedly read William out of the party.

This being observed as Admission Day, California may as well admit, now as at any other time, that if she isn't the greatest State in the Union, she is so blamed close to it that few people can tell the difference.

Mayor Schmitz, after being regarded as desiring to make a good name for himself, owing to his demeanor during the earthquake troubles, has gone back to the labor unions body and soul again. He has a kind of a backbone that somebody must always hold braces against to keep it from warping.

GOMPERS'S CITIZENSHIP.

Replying to a question raised by Speaker Cannon in Lewiston, Me., Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declares that he was naturalized in New York in 1872, and that he has since been a citizen and a legal voter. Very likely this is true if Mr. Gompers says so, though there have been many occasions when he has failed to speak the truth. But admitting that Gompers is a regularly naturalized citizen of the United States, it is not quite clear why he should be kept at the head of the largest labor organization in the country. Why would not some American-born citizen do just as well? There are as able men as Gompers who are eligible for the position. It ought not to be necessary to go to Europe to find material for the presidency of an American organization. Gompers was placed in his present position in 1882—ten years after he was naturalized—and with an intermission of one year he has held the job continuously to the present time. Is it because so large a proportion of the "American" Federation of Labor's membership is composed of foreign-born men that they must needs have a man of foreign birth for their president?

WORLD COAL SUPPLIES.

A German class publication, "Stahl und Eisen," has recently published new figures upon the world's coal supply. They are somewhat subversive of all previous estimates upon this important subject. For example, this German publication claims that the coal deposits of Germany, as outlined at the present time, indicate a supply of 280,000,000,000 tons. At the present rate of consumption, this would last Germany for about 2000 years. The coal supply of Great Britain is set down at 192,000,000,000 tons. According to this authority, the German supply has been marvelously multiplied, while that of Great Britain has been much decreased. The consumption in the British Isles being quite twice that of Germany, of course on this showing the supply of coal in Great Britain would be exhausted in less than 400 years.

The estimated deposits of other countries of Europe are set down like this: Belgium, 23,000,000,000 tons; France, 19,000,000,000 tons; Austria, 17,000,000,000 tons, and Russia, 40,000,000,000 tons. The coal deposits of North America are estimated by "Stahl und Eisen" at 681,000,000,000 tons. If we add the estimates for all European countries, including minor supplies, the total for Europe will run to 700,000,000,000 tons. This indicates that the supply of all Europe is but slightly superior to that of the North American ecntinent. Of course, the United States contains the bulk of the coal deposits of North America.

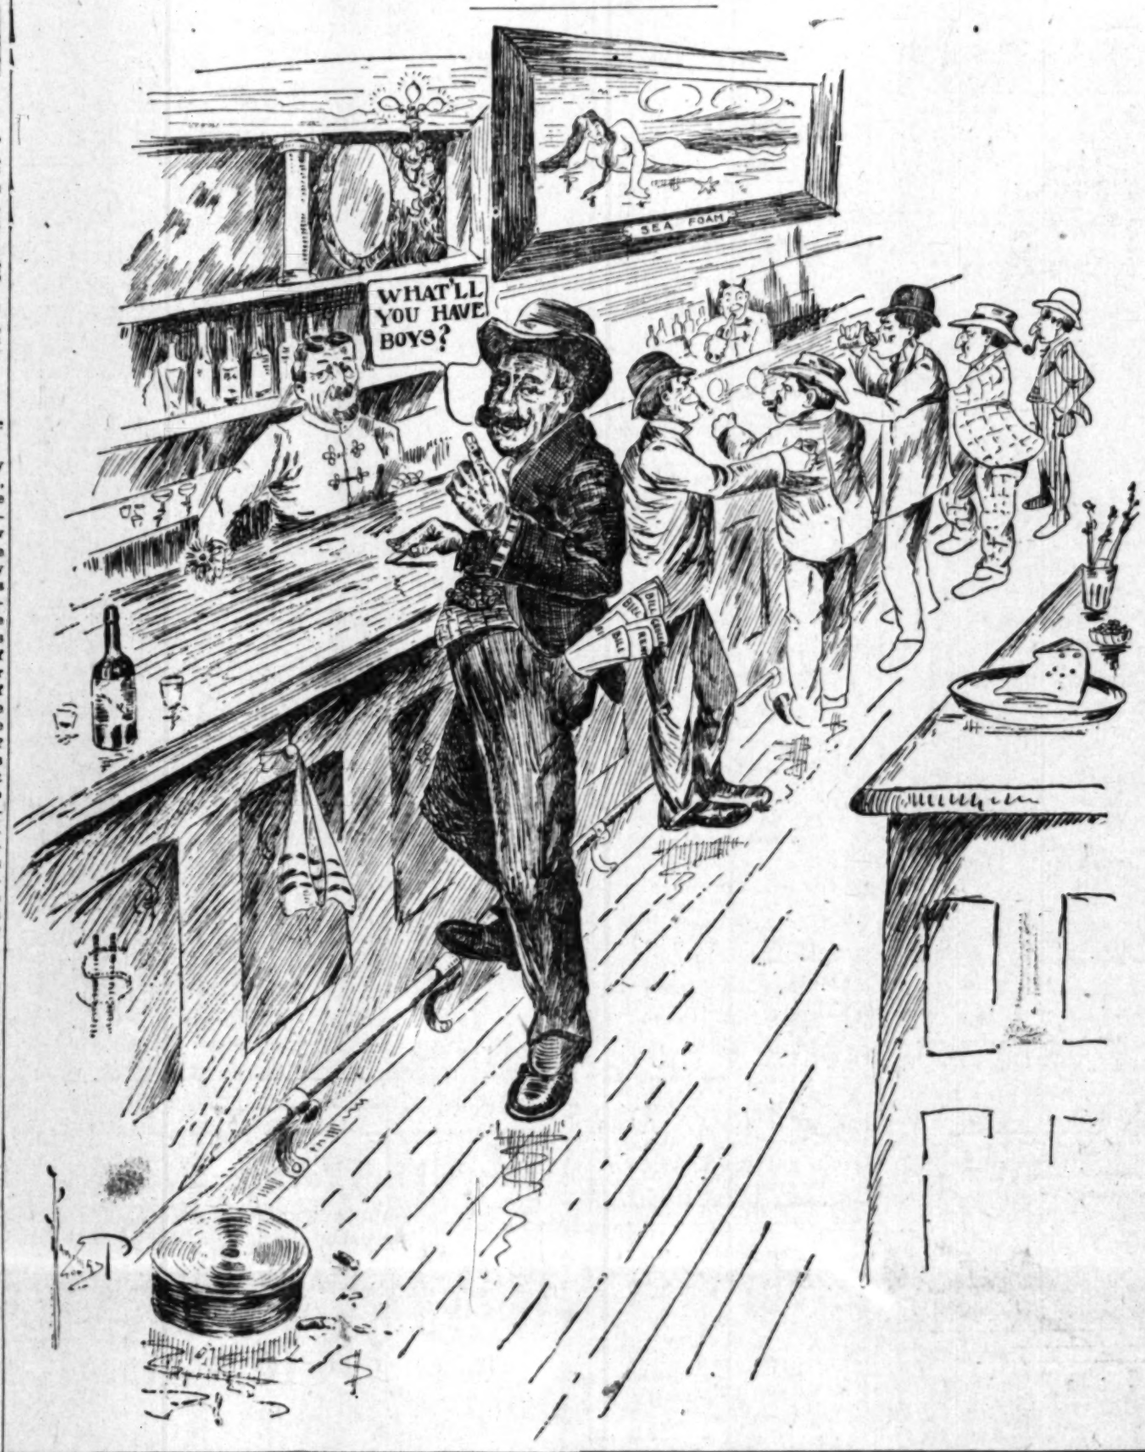
The coal deposits of Asia have been a matter rather of guesswork than of knowledge in the past, and our knowledge, even now, of what lies under the surface of the earth in Asia is not very accurate. This German authority gives as a basis for its estimate the study of a noted German scientist, whose name is not mentioned. He says that in the province of Shansi, a part of the Chinese Empire, the coal deposits amount to 1,200,000,000,000 tons.

As The Times has pointed out frequently, there are two other facts deserving careful consideration in connection with this subject of coal supply. At one time it was a very simple affair, with scarcely any modifying influences in the problem. But at present, there is more to take into account than the mere supply of coal in tons. There is, first, the expense of extracting it. The cost in Great Britain is about twice what it was fifty years ago, and the cost is increasing continually. This is in the main owing to the fact that the surface levels have been pretty well exhausted, and as lower levels are sought, the cost of mining is greatly increased. The same will become continually more and more true, not only in Great Britain, but in nearly all countries in Europe where the extraction of coal has been going on for a century. In the United States, the cost of extracting coal has been continually decreased by the use of powerful machinery. Of course, this might be introduced into the coal mines of other countries, but so far little has been done in this direction.

The other modifying factor in this study has also been pointed out frequently by The Times. It is the development of electrical power as an exceedingly important competitor with coal as motive power. Countries lacking in coal deposits are put, not merely on a level with the coal-producing countries, but even occupy a superior economical plane in some instances. Italy, with no coal at all to speak of, is rapidly becoming a very powerful competitor with England in many lines of manufacturing. Electrical power is much cheaper than coal at its cheapest, and as the cost of coal in Great Britain becomes greater, the cost of electricity in Italy is more than likely to become cheaper.

It seems to us that every other State ought to celebrate the admission of California into the Union in common with ourselves. It was a great day for them all when the Golden commonwealth was entered as a constituent part of the grandest nation on earth.

HAWXHURST'S TYPES—NO. 4.
THE "GOOD FELLOW."



A SPOKANE OUTRAGE.

The city of Spokane has a Mayor—Daggett by name—who has disgraced his office and has proven that he is utterly unfit to represent the people who elected him. A few days ago Mayor Daggett made a public statement to the effect that in the future only union men would be given employment in the city water department. Following this announcement, on Labor Day, union men seized the city's rolling stock and placed it into the parade, placarded with a bulletin to the effect that the water department had been "unionized."

If there is neither statute nor ordinance to prevent the Mayor of Spokane from making discriminations so unjust and obnoxious, there should be both. Whether or not the Mayor had a legal right to discriminate against non-union workmen, he had no shadow of moral right so to do. The city government of Spokane is not maintained and conducted for the exclusive benefit of trades unions. As a matter of fact, the trades unionists of Spokane comprise only a small minority of the total number of citizens, nor do they comprise a majority of the working people. They are not entitled to any special favors. The Mayor, if he were possessed of a modicum of common sense, would perceive the gross impropriety of showing preferences to any class of people, for he was elected to represent all the people, and not to represent any particular class. If the Mayor of Spokane should announce that no man would be eligible for employment by the city unless he belonged to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, or to the Elks, or to the Freemasons, his action would meet with instant and universal condemnation, and justly so. Yet such announcement would be no more absurd, no more unjust, and no more at variance with sound public policy, than his pronunciamento in favor of the employment of union workmen exclusively.

Voicing its just indignation at the action of Mayor Daggett, the Spokane Spokesman-Review says:

"It is not improbable that a Mayor so dead to the plainest principles of justice and propriety as to unionize one department of the city government may contemplate the unionizing of other departments. The police and the fire departments, for example, and in that event the city must expect to be menaced by the constant peril of strikes. The policemen and the firemen, deeming their wages insufficient or their hours too long, could strike to enforce their demands. The firemen, following the example of other labor organizations, would naturally time their strike to make it as effective as possible. They could refuse to man the department on occasion of a serious fire. In the same way the policemen could seize an occasion when the city was infested by the lawless element and go out on strike.

"Again, these departments, if unionized as the water department is now unionized, could go on sympathetic strikes. The firemen could refuse to protect a boycotted building in case of fire. The police could refuse to make arrests where the property of a boycotted merchant had been stolen."

All this, of course, is true; but it does not by any means complete the enumeration of the evils which would flow from the "unionizing" of the several departments of city government. The mere fact that unionist Mayors, unionist politicians and unionist workers see no impropriety in seeking to monopolize the machinery of a city government, demonstrates conclusively their unfitness to exercise the powers which they seek to exercise and to monopolize whenever and wherever opportunity offers.

TRADE DOES FOLLOW THE FLAG.

Though Uncle Sam's trade with his colonies, all of which (except Alaska) he has acquired since he appointed Republican managers on March 4, 1897, is only just beginning, yet it already amounts to $140,000,000 per annum.

This is how it is made up, according to the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor for the fiscal year ended June 30, last:

	Exported to—	Imported from—
Porto Rico	$19,291,131	$19,143,649
Alaska, goods	14,969,827	9,272,337
Alaska, own gold	727,119	12,639,623
Alaska, foreign gold	4,293	7,491,533
Hawaii	12,364,633	26,827,511
Philippines	5,459,444	12,327,827
Tutuila	113,760	No data.
Totals	$52,930,206	$87,822,480

SUMMARY.

Exports	$52,930,206
Imports	87,822,580
Year's trade, 1906	$140,652,786

Compared with 1905 (fiscal year,) these figures show an increase of $8,752,139 in our colonial exports, and a decrease of $7,389,764 in our imports from our colonies; $5,300,000 of the export increase was with Porto Rico, and $3,000,000 with Alaska; $9,200,000 was the decrease in sugar imports from Hawaii, and Alaska sent us $3,300,000 less foreign (Canadian) gold. This last was more than offset by an increase of $3,600,000 in our import of Alaskan gold. Our general imports increased by $3,500,000, but those from Alaska fell off $1,500,000, and from the Philippines, $300,000.

The sugar sent us from Hawaii fell off from 811,000,000 to 712,000,000 pounds, a decrease of 99,000,000 pounds in quantity, but the decrease in value was $10,000,000—from $34,000,000 to $24,000,000. Part of this decrease arose out of the reduction in price, the average for 1906 being 3.3 cents per pound, against 4.2 cents in 1905.

Of the $3,000,000 reduction in imports from Alaska, about $2,000,000 was in canned salmon—86,500,000 pounds in 1906, against 92,500,000 pounds in 1905.

Porto Rico's $3,500,000 increase in sales to us was in sugar and cigars—$2,500,000 for the first and $1,000,000 for the other. The $5,500,000 increase in our sales to Porto Rico was distributed among iron and steel manufactures, $3,250,000; cotton manufactures, $2,500,000; provisions, $2,000,000 and $3,333,000 American-grown rice.

Hawaii's purchases included $1,500,000 breadstuffs, $1,333,000 iron and steel manufactures, $1,250,000 mineral oils (principally crude,) and $500,000 provisions.

The net result of all these transactions is that the colonies make collections from us as follows:

Alaska	$12,500,000
Hawaii	14,500,000
Philippines	7,000,000
Total	$35,000,000

This is all paid for things we need, and the money stays in our own family instead of being paid out to foreigners. That is part of the great value to England of her many well-established colonies, and that is the increasing advantage to us of ours. Eventually, perhaps, our colonies, like England's, may buy of us as much as we buy of them. Porto Rico is already doing that.

Ten years ago these lands only bought of us $14,000,000 worth of goods a year; now they buy $52,000,000 worth. Colonies do pay, and trade does follow the flag.

BUSINESS CHANCES— Miscellaneous.

I WANT TWO OR THREE RESPONSIBLE business men who can invest from $2500 to $5000 each to join me in establishing an entirely new manufacturing business to cover the territory of Southern California; the product has never been manufactured before and is of daily use and consumption in every home and elsewhere. A factory is to be started at once and a large factory building fully equipped with spur tracks running into it from both the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railways, has been leased for a term of ten years. The NET profits on the output necessary to supply the PRESENT daily demand will be over $3000 per month, and recent developments prove conclusively that this demand will increase rapidly from month to month. This business is practically a monopoly as the product as well as the automatic machinery for manufacturing it is fully protected by United States patent just issued; it is absolutely safe, permanent, sound, of the highest class and will appeal at once to the most conservative business man. Much money and labor have already been expended in developing the subject so that it is now easily investigated. It has been submitted to the highest authorities in Los Angeles as to its sanitary feature and has received their hearty indorsement. Knowledge of the details of the business, which can be easily acquired will convince any person that the above statements are true and not overdrawn. Any person answering this advertisement will please give references or information by which the undersigned advertiser to determine their standing and responsibility, otherwise an interview will not be granted. No agents, principals only. For personal interview address E, box 143, TIMES OFFICE. 10

Chicago, Ill., April 8, 1905.
Mr. W. F. McBurney, Los Angeles, Cal.—Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to testify to the efficacy of your Kidney and Bladder Cure. I have been troubled with my kidneys and bladder for over four years. I have been treated by the best physicians of this city during that time. (I mention two who stand at the head of the profession, viz.: Dr. C. A. Purdy and Dr. Frank Walls, the latter being my son.) I regret to say they did me no good. I was advised to spend the winter in your glorious climate and try the ocean baths. I visited San Diego, Santa Monica and Santa Barbara, but received only temporary relief from the baths. On the night I left home I got a bottle of your medicine. The first dose did me good, and I was well when I reached home, and I can say in conclusion that I am grateful to you. If this letter is of any use to you, use it. THOS. WALLS.

A Case of Chronic Catarrhal Deafness Cured

CHARLIE MARTIN,
Buena Park, Orange Co.

Mrs. J. W. Martin, mother of Charlie Martin gives the Los Angeles Medical Inst. full credit for the remarkable recovery of her son from deafness in the following statement. Mrs. Martin says: Our little son has been deaf for years. The trouble first started when he was two years old, and he finally became so deaf that he could hardly hear at all. His deafness made him appear rather stupid, when, as a matter of fact, he was an unusually bright boy. He was constantly complaining of headaches, due to his catarrh. The treatment he has received from the Los Angeles Medical Inst. has changed all this. He now hears as good as any one, and is better in every way. He hardly seems the same boy. My husband is a well-known farmer and we live at Buena Park in Orange Co., and it would be easy for any one to verify my statements."

At the Churches Yesterday.

Content of Education.

ONE of the most timely sermons of the early autumn was delivered yesterday morning before a large audience in the Garvanza M. E. Church. Rev. Tully C. Knoles, associate professor of history at the University of Southern California, filled the pulpit and spoke on "The Content of Education." In part, Rev. Knoles said:

"Words change their meanings with the growth of experience. The new experience may detract from the old meaning, change it entirely, or add to it. Thus throughout its life the word education has had various meanings—a meaning for almost every time and place, and personality.

Rev. T. C. Knoles.

"Epochs in educational activity have stamped themselves with their own content, which, indeed, have been projected into other epochs. Today, therefore, we have an endless number of ideals in this realm.

"First, there is the theory of acquisition. In many circles great stress is laid on a well-filled mind. Receptivity is at a premium; careful selection of materials is not so prominent in this ideal, one subject is supposed to yield about as much culture as another, and the psychology of interest is not studied. The holder of a degree is perforce a member of a charmed circle, is within a caste. It would be interesting to study carefully into the number of men and women who are college graduates and failures in life and see how many of them were educated under this ideal.

"Second—There is the practical education. Men say, 'What we want is a system of educatio that will fit men and women for the active business of life.' What a hue and cry has been raised over this statement. Analyzed it is this: 'Fit boys and girls for industrial life,' and still further analyzed 'Make human machines.' If the business of life is the acquisition of wealth or the securing of fame, then give us a so-called practical education. Teach boys and girls to do something. I often tell my students, 'If this is your ideal then do some one thing, no matter what it is, better than any one else, and your result is achieved. Men pay money for the best—even if it is for facial contortion.'

"Third—The third content is the theory o. education that looks to the development of the individual. It sees the mind not as a storehouse for facts and fancies, not as a clearing-house for plans of work, but as the instrument for the unfolding of a personality. Every life has wrapped up in it the possibility of marvelous development. Every life has peculiar powers and capabilities. These must be brought forth and given to the world. A prominent educator recently said: 'It is the business of a modern university to gather all existing knowledge to conserve this stock of knowledge, and to add to the sum total of human knowledge every possible thing from every possible field.' But this ideal is not high enough for a Christian institution, for it looks only at the materials of education, and not at the subject to be educated.

"If a person could have lived throughout all time, his being would have expanded with his experiences. If a person is really educated he is what he would have been if this had been the case. Not that he has had poured into him the accumulated experience of the past, but that he has passed in his forms of thinking through the great fields of human endeavor, and they have transformed, fitted him. For instance, take one whose surroundings, associations, etc., place him chronologically many centuries earlier than one of our people. Lift him out of those surroundings, and properly educate him and he is all that he might have been with the intervening centuries of culture which you have known through your ancestry.

"This property is the modern content of education. It does not try to cramp personality, to dwarf intellect to system, to conserve knowledge in text-book, in library or in notebook, but to achieve wisdom in character making."

Open Doors.

Special services were held yesterday at the First Christian Church, corner of Hope and Eleventh streets, in honor of the sixteenth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. A. C. Smither, who took charge of the church September 9, 1890.

The occasion was one of especial thanksgiving for the members of the church, and it is significant that the beginning of the pastor's seventeenth year should be marked with the consummation of an event that bodes well for the future of the church. During the "vacation period," covering the summer months, the church has nearly doubled the size and efficiency of its accommodations. The new Sunday-school rooms that have been added are said to be the most completely equipped of any on the Pacific Coast, and the Sunday-school will from now on, take a more prominent part in the church's work. The additions that have been made during the summer increase the value of the congregation's holdings until they now near the neighborhood of $75,000.

The minister spoke briefly of his long connection with the First Christian Church and of the changes that have come both to the congregation, and to himself in this period. He called upon all the members of his old congregation, who had listened to his first sermon and service in the old First Christian Church on Temple street to stand, so that their number might be counted and compared with the 800 resident, and 200 non-resident members that the old church had numbered. Fifteen members of the congregation were there to answer the call.

Mr. Smither took for his text a verse from Corinthians, that gave him the opportunity of turning at once from the past to the future of the church and its members, where the apostle speaks of the "open door." He applied the figure to the opportunities that lay before the First Christian Church at the outset of the seventeenth year of his ministration, and at the commencement of a new period in the church's history, when it finds its means of doing good manifoldly increased and the field of endeavor growing greater every day. He said:

"There are two spiritual 'open doors' that lie before us today. The first of these is the Sunday-school. It is not over-emphasizing or exaggerating to say that there is no work that is undertaken and carried out by the church that is as important as this branch. Our missionary work is also important but fades into insignificance when compared with the maintenance of the Sunday-schools. From them we must recruit our ranks and fill the vacancies that death and time make in them. When we compare the number of conversions to the faith that our missionaries bring about, the number is pitifully small beside that great army that come into the fold through the teachings and influence of the Sunday-school workers. Few men over 24 ever change their religion, while the Sunday-school reaches the child at the age when the foundations of his religion must be laid. It is a fact that 5 per cent. of the additions to our church come from this source.

"The church will now have unexcelled opportunities for this kind of work, and if ever there was an open door for those in the church who wish to serve it faithfully and well, it is before them now. The open door never had its hinges set wider apart than in this matter of the Sunday-schools.

"There is an open door for all of us in another and a still more spiritual way. It is in aiding by our own lives in fulfilling the most perfect ideals in the truly Christian life; in living apart and above the downward unchristian tendencies of today, and making an example of better things. Little things that once had a great meaning and a part in the lives of Christians seem for a while to have lost their hold. Few families today keep up the practice of having a family altar, and few even say grace at the family board. Yet both of these practices are beautiful, ennobling, and uplifting toward a better Christian life.

"We must keep pace with the rapid growth of the city. Only by offering of our substance and our labor can we keep up the increased work that is before us."

TACKLES BIG NEGRO ROBBER.

FORMER FIRE CHIEF STROHM IN DESPERATE FIGHT.

Finds Burglar in His House and Tries to Capture Him, but Thief Breaks Away and in Spite of Pursuers Escapes — Negro Was in Search of Jewels.

Engaging a negro porch climber in a desperate hand-to-hand encounter in the front room of the second story of his home at No. 219 Crocker street, last evening about 9 o'clock, Deputy Sheriff Tom Strohm, formerly Chief of the fire department, prevented the robber taking a jewel case filled with gems. Strohm leaped upon the huge negro and fought him for several minutes, but was stunned by a blow.

Aroused by the din of the fight between Strohm and the burglar, A. D. Patterson rushed from his home, No. 215 Crocker street, and dashed around into Strohm's back yard. As he rounded the corner, the big negro thief leaped from the roof of the rear porch and ran toward the street.

With the porch climber in the lead and Patterson following closely, and with several firemen in pursuit, they dashed toward Fourth on Crocker street. As the negro neared the corner Patterson fired two shots to which the colored burglar responded with a renewed burst of speed. Patterson gained on the black until they came to Fourth street and Towne avenue.

Looking around the thief saw that his pursuers were near him and he pulled a revolver from his hip pocket. As the negro veered toward a fence, he slowed down and Patterson thinking that he was about to respond to his shots, fired twice again, The negro leaped over a fence and disappeared.

During the chase the robber had cried "Catch him; stop him!" to deceive those in front.

While detectives were searching for the negro in the vicinity of Fourth and Towne avenue he made his way to a negro lodging-house owned by R. T. Tinsley, No. 629 Crocker street. Will Simmons, a negro, was passing and saw that the man who entered the yard was acting suspiciously.

Simmons leaped over the fence and ran toward the burglar. The chase continued around the house and the thief was last seen by Simmons dashing down Ninth street at high speed. No further trace of the robber could be found although the detectives and police spent the greater part of the night searching for him.

"A queer noise first attracted my attention," said Strohm, "just about a half hour before the encounter I had with the burglar. It seemed to come from the rear yard and I made every effort to find out what it was, but I could not locate it. I went to a rear room in the second story and lay down on the bed and began to read.

"Startled by the striking of a match in the front part of the house, I went to investigate. A dim light issued from the room occupied by my daughter, but as I knew that all of my family were on the front porch I began to suspect that there was some one there who did not belong in the house.

"Softly I stole to the door and as I placed my hand on the button to throw on the electric lights I heard some one run. I intercepted the burglar by running to another door. In his left hand he held a revolver and something else I could not define. I thought to overpower him, but he was a big man and I did not have any time to think about how to do it.

"Until the negro struck me and threw me back in the corner I was getting the best of him. Then he rushed out of the hall onto the back porch and disappeared. I think that the only thing he got was a watch. If I had not caught him in the room he would have gotten away with much more."

Robert Barnes, a negro living at No. 413 Ruth avenue, was arrested early this morning by Patrolmen Humphreys and Stevens on suspicion of being the porch-climber. According to the officers, Barnes answers the description of the robber exactly, and has served two years in the penitentiary on the charge of burglary. The officers traced Barnes to the "400" Club, a notorious negro organization, near Fourth and Central avenue. Barnes maintains his innocence.

LIFE DRAINS FROM MADMAN.

Alone in House, He Slashes Wrist With Razor.

But Wound Closes in Time to Prevent Death.

Three Days of Agony Before Grant Is Found.

For three days John Grant lay in a darkened mansion awaiting reason's return or death's coming. He had sought death; and so near did he come to its realization that surgeons who saw him yesterday marvel at his living.

Thursday morning Grant, while temporarily insane, sat down in J. C. Mc-Gowan's beautiful home, No. 1125 Hobart Place, and cut the veins in his wrist. Loss of blood brought on unconsciousness. Grant was the only person in the house. When he recovered from a long swoon he was too weak to stand.

His insanity was still with him. Slowly came glimmerings of reason. Yesterday he was able to telephone for help. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and his mental condition will be the object of inquiry by a commission today.

ALTERNATE MADNESS.

Grant was mad. His madness came at times—and gave way to entire reason. In one of the lapses he tried to commit suicide. And when he was again able to think he found himself helpless, with the blood-stained knife beside him and a gaping wound in his wrist. His wait for strength—a wait in which came horrible lapses into insanity—was like a nightmare.

Grant is a carpenter. MacGowan has employed him. He was despondent. Last spring his wife had gotten a divorce. She is now in Pasadena. The two children, Walter, aged 14, and Virgil, aged 11, are at the McKinley Home. Brooding over his domestic troubles made the man insane.

But the insanity did not show when MacGowan took his family East a few weeks ago. They went to St. Louis and Grant was placed in charge of the house. Another man took care of the chickens and the stables. In the darkened home Grant was preyed on by his despondency. And gradually the reason came to desert him for long periods.

A LOSING FIGHT.

The saddest part of such things is the knowledge the sufferer sometimes has of the approach of madness. Grant fought out such battles as that by himself.

Thursday morning came a mental lapse. In a frenzy he resolved to end his life. He got a large dishpan and placed it beside a chair. He seated himself and slashed his wrist with a razor. The blood flowed in a red stream. Grant swooned.

Consciousness returned after many hours. He was still seated in the chair, collapsed in a huddled mass. Beside him was the pan, bearing the contents. More than half the blood in the man's body had left it before the flow had checked.

THE HORROR OF IT.

Glimmerings of reason came and went. Grant remained a long time in the chair. Then came fuller realization, and with it awful thirst and hunger. Food there was none in the house. He got some water. Then he swooned again.

Friday the man was able to walk about for a time again. He made a little black coffee. Darkness came on him again. It was not until yesterday morning that he was himself. The haunting fear of madness went for a short time. He wanted to live.

He dragged himself to a telephone. He called up Mrs. Mercer, a neighbor. She called Dr. William F. Wheeler. The surgeon went to the MacGowan mansion and found Grant. He attended to the man and notified the Police Station. They took Grant to the Receiving Hospital. He is gradually gaining in strength, but his recovery is now thought to be hopeless.

GUN VS. SPIRITS.

Spiritualistic Feud Fails to Split Hearse on Hill Street and Revolver Ends Trouble.

Lieut. D. Lorne Campbell, who has been exposing, in a series of lectures, the tricks and fakes used by clairvoyants, mediums and palmists, reports that his actions so angered one Mrs. Redfern that the latter assaulted him last night. Prof. Redfern advertises himself as the world's greatest psychic.

While Lieut. Campbell was walking down Hill street, he says that Prof. Redfern met him, and with an oath threw some heavy missile at his head. The professor missed, and Lieut. Campbell said: "Why not go into a trance and make a better shot?" The professor began to swear, whether spiritually or not is not stated, and the lieutenant showed him the working end of a gun that he carried in the days of war. The professor thereupon retired into the distance.

This is said to be the second time that Prof. Redfern and Lieut. Campbell have had a disagreement over the impostures of fake spiritualism, the former event happening in a Broadway restaurant.

SPANKED BY SOCIALISTS.

Unionites Are Turned Down by Convention.

Red Flag Party Prepares to Collect Real Rent.

Theorists Are After Scalp of Senator Hahn.

Look a Socialist and you'll catch a candidate

Just now the local topsy-turveyites think they have a chance to throw their usual bluff and get their names in the propaganda columns.

They all very funny. But even the Socialists won't stand for some things, and one of these is labor-union domination. In this respect they are always more or less hanging to a ragged edge but still manage to preserve some independence and Socialistic self-respect.

At the county convention of the Socialist party held here last week, the pure union element tried hard to get an indorsement, but were well spanked for their pains.

Then was the Industrial Workers of the World, better known by their mysterious initials, I.W.W., that tried to play the little game.

Like all anarchists, bomb-throwers, and those who believe in the tyranny of the select minority of red-eyed demagogues, the members of the I.W.W. are not sympathizers with the Haywards, Moyers and Pettibones, held to answer for the law which they despise.

In the case of Hayward, the head of the Federation of Miners, which has been responsible for so much bloodshed in Colorado and Cananea, the Socialists are sympathetic and the I.W.W. tried to take advantage of this to further their own ends, and introduced a resolution at the convention of sympathy for Hayward and indorsement of the I.W.W.

TURNED DOWN HARD.

Each State has its own peculiar breed of Socialists, and to the consternation of the Socialist unionites the Los Angeles convention rejected this resolution of sympathy and indorsement by a vote of over four to one.

Now there is trouble.

And yet again the Los Angeles Socialists have started in to stultify themselves. They are actually going to collect property—to become hated landlords—to drag down real rent.

At the meeting of the County Central

AT THE CITY

THE NORTHWEST.

The heaviest job of paving so far undertaken in this city is the surfacing of Temple street with asphalt. The steep grades and narrowness of the thoroughfare has contributed to the difficulties, and as it is necessary to rush the work forward as much as possible, the contractors find themselves facing a stupendous task. The entire contents of pavement will be torn up, and already many crossings are ready for the top coating. From Westlake Park road to Belmont avenue the asphalt has been placed, and those who have charge of the labor declare that there will be no better piece of work undertaken by the city than the pavement of West Temple street.

Rev. Avenue Methodist Church will clear all the debts on its running account, and is ready to report at the annual conference, which convenes at Riverside, September 25, with a clean bill of health. Rev. Henry W. Bruce explained the situation of the church to his congregation yesterday morning, and an unusual service followed. Every cent the pastor asked for was contributed at the time, and debts were speedily wiped out. Instead of the regular sermon the members enjoyed a praise service. The church has this year exceeded a record in giving by sending a larger amount to the San Francisco relief fund. An earnest call has been extended to Rev. Mr. White, asking him to remain another year. The trustees of the church has been built up financially, and the organization is on a more substantial basis than for some time past.

BOYLE HEIGHTS.

Millions of tons of earth have been utilized in the work of improvement in this section, and as a result, hundreds of fine residence lots have been made, and ugly ravines filled within the past few months. Notable have been the filling of the deep ravines on Boyle avenue, just north of First street, and also on Brooklyn avenue, between St. Louis and Chicago streets, and on State street and Brooklyn avenue. The latter has been secured from the grading operations in this vicinity.

Mrs. Lora Beal, who has resided on Boyle Heights for several years, has recently sold her home on St. Louis street, started yesterday for Springfield, Mo., where she will spend the winter with her son, Prof. Frank F. Beal, a prominent musician of that city.

Angelo Kirk has purchased from Estelle Clements Wadsworth a cottage at No. 2822 Brooklyn avenue. She will occupy it for a home. The consideration was $5000.

The young people of the recently organized Brooklyn Heights Methodist Epworth League, and prepared the way for the League. The following officers were elected, viz.: President, Miss Cherry; first vice-president, Miss Elizabeth Service; second vice-president, Mrs. Rose S. Cherry; third vice-president, Miss Alice Walker; secretary, Mrs. Rose S. Cherry; treasurer, Willis Snodgrass; Roland Thomas; Junior superintendent, Mrs. Jennie

GARVANZA.

The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Catherine Wheat on North Avenue 66.

Mrs. R. Wilkes of North Avenue 66 is visiting a few weeks in Berkeley.

Mrs. Galpin of No. 502 North Avenue 66 has returned from Denver where she has been attending the summer school.

Miss Galpin, instructor of history in the Los Angeles High School, has gone to the mountains for a few weeks with her father, Cromwell Galpin.

Miss Cherry has returned. She visited the Islands, after which she cruised among the Coral Islands of the South Pacific.

The home of Mrs. R. H. Lindsey, corner of Eighth street and Avenue 64, was the scene last Tuesday afternoon of a meeting of the members of the sewing society, who are working for the Associated Charities. Sixteen members were present.

SPANKED BY SOCIALISTS.

Unionites Are Turned Down by Convention.

Red Flag Party Prepares to Collect Real Rent.

Theorists Are After Scalp of Senator Hahn.

Look a Socialist and you'll catch a cuss

Just now the local topsy-turveyites think they have a chance to throw their weight and get their names in the Propaganda columns.

It's all very funny. But even the Times won't stand for some things, and one of these is labor-union domination. In this respect they are always for less hanging to a ragged edge but still manage to preserve some semblance and Socialistic self-respect.

The county convention of the Socialist party held here last week, the Hayward faction element tried hard to get an endorsement, but were well spanked for their pains.

Now the Industrial Workers of the World, better known by their mysterious initials, I.W.W., that tried to play the little game.

You see all anarchists, bomb-throwers, and those who believe in the tyranny of the vast minority of red-eyed demagogues, the members of the I.W.W. are the sympathizers with the Haywards, Moyers and Pettibones, held to answer for the case of Hayward, the head of the Federation of Miners, which has been responsible for so much bloodshed in Colorado and Cananea, the Socialists are sympathetic and the I.W.W. proceeds to take advantage of this to further their own ends, and introduced a resolution at the convention of sympathy for Hayward and indorsement of the I.W.W.

TURNED DOWN HARD.

But the State has its own peculiar brand of Socialists, and to the consternation of the Socialist unionites the Socialist convention rejected this expression of sympathy and indorsement by a vote of over four to one.

There is trouble.

Once again the Los Angeles Socialists have started in to stultify themselves. They are actually going to the county-to become hated landlords by going down real rent.

At a meeting of the County Central Committee of the red-flaggers at No. 211 New High street, late Saturday evening, through their "Commonsense(?)" publishing company, they closed a deal for a lot at Sixth and San Julian streets for $7000. On this lot they will erect a headquarters, with meeting halls at so much per talkfest.

It was at this same committee meeting that the Socialists decided to get out after the scalp of State Senator Ben Hahn. They claim to have promises of support in this fight from citizens outside of the Propaganda party.

AFTER HIS SCALP.

The candidate upon the Socialist ticket for State Senator against Hahn is Cloudesley T. Johns, a magazine writer and scarlet theorist who now finds himself up against a phase of practical politics in which theories don't pay for red fire.

But as theories are the main thing with the Socialists, this really don't make much difference and so Mr. Johns was appointed county organizer for the party, and will start in today to put some of his pet theories into practical evidence. Anyway, he says he's out after Ben Hahn and will hustle just as hard as though he didn't have a theory in the world.

For the city end of the Socialist ticket, Frank Marek, another candidate, this time for County Clerk, has been appointed organizer of any precincts lying around loose. Marek will be assisted in his work by the candidate for Governor, a rampant individual named Arthur Lewis, who is a hunter of trouble, and boasts of being a Socialist since he was 12 years old, and a hater of the police.

So far the indication are that there will be a stirring up of some mud in the Arroyo Seco and the Eighth Ward.

And tomorrow the Democratic State Convention begins its session.

CURIOUS COLLISION.

Speeding Car Swings in Front of Another, but by Some Miracle no One Was Injured.

By the breaking of the front axel on the foremost truck of east-bound Los Angeles Railway Boyle Heights car No. 248 a few hundred yards east of Utah street on East First street yesterday afternoon, the rear end of the car was hurled onto the track of west-bound electric car No. 244. Seventy-five passengers of the cars were slightly jolted but only two windows were broken in the cars.

While car No. 248 was speeding up the hill in charge of Motorman Mertz and was just passing car No. 244 bound in the opposite direction, the axel suddenly broke. With a lurch the car rolled as though it was about to fall upon its side, but it struck the other car.

Motorman J. Mertz quickly brought his car to a stop by applying the air. Strangely there was no panic in either car. In falling upon the west-bound car the out-going coach broke two window lights and slightly battered the sides. The passengers were transferred to another coach and the wreck was soon cleared away.

DARING ACT SAVES LIVES.

Hackman Sacrifices Horses for Passengers.

Turns Team Toward Car to Break the Shock.

Collision Wrecks Carriage, but Driver Escapes.

His own life looked less valuable to S. H. Hackett than those of the two passengers in his hack yesterday morning. Hackett deliberately faced awful death to save Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Collins of No. 1117 Broadway, Denver. It all came about in the twinkling of an eye, when the hack team collided with a swift-running Pico Heights car on Fifth street, near Maple.

So suddenly did it happen, in fact, that Hackett himself doesn't understand how he was able to think of anything at all—much less of how to save lives.

Hackett drives a hack for the Tally-ho stable. He got a call yesterday morning to take Mr. and Mrs. Collins to the Arcade depot. He was driving briskly down Fifth street at 8 o'clock, following a Maple-avenue car, when the accident happened.

At Maple avenue the car, which was running just ahead of Hackett's team, turned south. Keeping east down Fifth street, Hackett swerved his horses to the left in order to avoid the swinging rear of the car ahead of him. He had noticed the Pico Heights car, coming west on Fifth street, a block away. As his vehicle swung onto the northern car track the driver found that car right upon him.

Hackett's first instinct was to turn his horses from the path of the car. In the flickering of an eyelash it came to him—as things do come to men whose heads are cool—that this would bring his carriage broadside to the car. The collision would overturn the carriage. It would take him out of the car's path, this move, but it would probably kill his passengers.

All these things he thought in one brief instant. And as he thought he acted.

Hackett headed his horses straight into the car. He had to raise them on their haunches to do it. He drove them directly at the mass of steel and wood, and did not flinch.

The crash came—and then a jingle of broken glass. A horse shrieked in agony—the cry was almost human.

Hackett was covered with a shower of broken glass from the vestibule. The horses lay prone, beneath the car. The hack's pole snapped near the wheels, and rammed back by the car, had run through the dashboard and the seat, missing the brave driver by a scant two inches. Had it struck him it would have impaled him.

They had to shoot the horses. Patrolman Wallace did it. But the passengers in the hack were unhurt. The car was No. 511. Witnesses state that the motorman was running at a high rate of speed.

THE CITY'S GATES.

THE NORTHWEST.

The finest job of paving so far undertaken in this city is the surfacing of Temple street with asphalt. The steep grades and narrowness of this thoroughfare has contributed difficulties, and as it is impossible to rush the work forward as rapidly as possible, the contractors find that the stupendous task of laying a stupendous task. Before the pavement will be completed already many crossings have been put in the top coating. From Alvarado road to Belmont avenue the work has been placed, and those in charge of the labor declare that there is no better piece of work being done by the city than the pavement on Temple street.

The Grace Methodist Church has cleared the debts on its running account and is ready to report at the conference, which convenes in this city September 25, with a clean bill of health. Rev. Henry W. Brown outlined the situation of the affairs of the church to his congregation Sunday morning, and an announcement followed. Every cent that was asked for was contributed by the people, and debts were speedily paid. Instead of the regular sermon the members enjoyed a praise service. The church has this year established a record in giving by sending a delegate to the San Francisco conference. An earnest call has been issued to Rev. Mr. White, asking him to remain another year. The Grace church has been built up and the organization is on a more financial basis than for some years.

CROSBY IS FIRST AGAIN.

Good Scores in Second Day of Blue Rock Shoot.

Professionals Come to the Front Easily.

Pacific Coast Handicap on the Card Today.

Some of the marksmen fell by the wayside yesterday and dropped out of the ranks of the blue rock shooters who are taking part in the big interstate shoot on the grounds near Sherman, but there was so few absentees that they were not missed by the spectators. Seventy-two men faced the traps on Saturday, the opening day, and sixty-seven showed up yesterday, some of them slightly disfigured but still able to do a little business at the old stand.

Blue rock shooting, according to some of the amateurs that were at the grounds yesterday, is like sitting in a poker game or playing the races as far as making any money is concerned and when they miss two or three in one shoot many of them will wonder "what tell," and lose their nerve. This was the way with some of them yesterday, and it might be well to state that the strain of trying to keep up with the best shots in the country and the scheme of watching to see how long the electric lights can burn without going out, is very tiresome on the nerves, and some men who tried it say that the hardest part of a day's shoot sometimes is to keep from seeing two blue rocks fly out of the trap instead of one.

Still, the work on the whole yesterday was up to the average and compared very favorably with that of Saturday. Crosby, the "old man" wonder, was first yesterday with high gun, as he was on Saturday, but there was considerable shifting of positions as regards the others, with the exception of the professional Herschey. On Saturday Herschey finished fifth in total number of kills for the day, and yesterday he was fourth. Saturday, Reed was tenth, Holling sixth, and Huff ninth, and yesterday Reed finished second, Holling third and Huff in sixth place, all of these being professionals. Mills was second on Saturday, and eleventh yesterday, while Varian fell back from third to seventh place. The other old professional Heikes, was fourth on Saturday, and yesterday was in fine form and tied Crosby for high gun, with 171 birds out of 180 shot at, the average of both men being 95 per cent. Consequently yesterday was a day where class told, the high scores being made by men who have been shooting for years in just such tournaments.

The card yesterday consisted of nine shoots at twenty birds each, sixteen yards, the professionals shooting, of course for birds only and not being allowed a crack at the money. It was strictly an amateur programme, and was devoid of any special feature. The day was a beautiful one for shooting and quite a good-sized crowd of spectators went out to see the work. Crosby, Heikes, Huff, Holling and Reed are men that rarely miss, and some of their misses yesterday were more on straight-away shots than on right quartering ones.

The results were as follows:

MUCH MONEY SECURED.

FIRE-POLICE TEAM GET IT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The combined baseball team from the fire and police departments, which has been touring eastern cities for eight weeks, has returned home, having accumulated $10,000 to be added to the treasuries of the Widows' and Orphans Aid Societies of the two departments.

The team played seven games on the tour. In only one case was it defeated, when the Philadelphia police team won a closely contested game by a score of 4 to 2.

The final game of the tour was played before an immense gathering of ball fans at Chicago, when the Californians defeated the police team of that city by a 12-to-0 score. The Chicago team was anxious to wipe out the defeat in a return game, but the time limit set upon the tour had expired.

Programme for Today.

This is the third and final day of the big shoot, and the programme will open with three events of twenty targets each. These will be followed by the Pacific Coast handicap for amateurs, for which there are fifty-eight entries, and these are handicapped from 14 to 22 yards. The contest is at 100 birds, unknown angles, with an entrance fee of $10

Fight Trust to Offer Purse for the Battle.

Goldfield Rickard Is Not to Make a Bid.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The heavyweight championship contest between "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien and Sam Berger will probably take place in San Francisco under the auspices of the "fight trust" next November. Eddie Graney wired Gleason, manager of Berger, at Chicago, yesterday, that he would offer a $15,000 purse for the event. That is the figure O'Brien set as the minimum for their match, and there is no chance that there will be any bidding against the San Francisco promoter.

Goldfield is the only place outside of San Francisco that the fight might take place, and Rickard has assured Graney he will make no offer for the contest. O'Brien will be here either on Tuesday or Wednesday, and if Gleason wires that the offer is acceptable, the Philadelphian will doubtless postpone his Australian trip.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

CARS THROUGH BY TUESDAY.

ALTADENA-SOUTH PASADENA SERVICE PROMISED.

Construction on the New "Short Line" by Way of Oak Knoll Is Being Rushed to Completion and Will Probably Be Done Within Three Weeks—Police Department Needs.

Office of The Times, No. 26 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Sept. 9.—The through service between Altadena and South Pasadena which was promised for last Monday morning and did not materialize, will positively commence next Tuesday morning, according to the announcement of the officials of the Pacific Electric company. When the cars failed to start Monday the railroad people stated that it was simply due to the fact that there were not enough men available to make up the necessary crews. Since then they have been adding more men, and from Tuesday morning on, the Altadena-South Pasadena run will be a part of the company's regular schedule.

The construction work on the new short line via Oak Knoll is being rushed to completion, and within the next three weeks will probably be completed. The construction crews have now reached a point about half way between Oak Knoll and California street, and a considerable distance is being covered daily. The double track is being laid all the way along, so that when the stretch is finally completed, cars can be run at once.

It is anticipated that when the new service is in running order it will take a good deal of the strain off from the present route, and will allow the cars to run on a better schedule. While there is but one direct route it is impossible to keep the cars always on time, and during the busy hours of the day traffic is seriously interfered with sometimes.

POLICE MATTERS.

Tomorrow morning Jailer Bristol will return to his desk at the Police Station, thereby relieving Night Jailor Reynolds, who has been taking care of the detail during the vacation of the veteran officer. Patrolman Longley, who has been on the night detail, will again walk his beat. A requisition has been put in by Chief Pinkham for new helmets and wreaths for the men, and as soon as they are secured the force will make a considerably better appearance. There is a conspicuous lack of uniformity among the varieties of headgear which the men are wearing at present, and the arrival of the new helmets is anxiously awaited.

An effort may be made in the near future to have the pattern of the uniforms at present worn by the patrolmen changed. The style now in use is the nine-button blouse, cut straight from the shoulders to the hip line. The men complain that it is impossible to keep them looking like anything owing to the fact that the weight of the buttons pulls them out of shape in front. The straight sides are also unbecoming, and the policemen say that it is impossible for one of their number to look smart, no matter how hard he may try. The pattern of blouse worn by the Los Angeles policemen meets popular approval as far as the policemen are concerned, and an effort may be made to have the commissioners change the regulation before any of the men buy new uniforms.

THE CHOIR'S "TWILIGHT."

The choir of the North Pasadena Methodist Church gave a "twilight" song service this evening in place of the regular preaching services. The pastor delivered a short address lasting but a few minutes, and the rest of the evening was given up to songs of praise and thanksgiving.

The pretty little church was artistically decorated in blue and green, Japanese bamboo being used in profusion. All of the lights were masked behind clusters of green, and the lighting tone of the church was that of the twilight hour, although the service was not commenced until 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The air of restful repose which pervaded the church was appropriate to the class of music offered.

The service was arranged by the choir under the supervision of Director Walter James. During Mr. James's incumbency the choir has made rapid strides, and it is now considered one of the best in Pasadena. Tonight's song service was by far the most pretentious of anything of the sort ever attempted in the church, and was highly praised by the members who were present.

ARROYO'S NEEDS.

The Arroyo Seco was the scene of a large number of picnic parties today, and the entire length of the creek bed was dotted with little crowds of happy picnickers, who were taking advantage of the pleasant weather to take an outing. The chief trouble with picnicking in the arroyo at present is the lack of a good road. The sand is so deep, and there are so many large boulders along the roadway that it is almost impossible to drive with a two-seated rig for more than a mile or two.

The first step toward the laying out of the Arroyo Park will be the construction of a good carriage road. When this has once been built and put in proper shape it will be a comparatively easy matter to keep it in condition, and the arroyo will soon become a popular drive for the people of Pasadena and Los Angeles. With very little work the present roadbed can be put in proper shape and with the storm water once taken care of the greatest obstacle in the way of the realization of the Arroyo Park project will have been overcome.

Dr. Hibbard has been spending his vacation at Lake Tahoe, and in his absence the services at his church have been conducted by visiting clergymen. Since the organization of St. Andrews' parish the church has had a remarkable growth, and the new building, upon which work has already been begun, is much needed in order to accommodate the increased attendance.

The Rev. Willis Hall, formerly rector of All Saints' Church in this city, is here on a visit to his daughter. Dr. Hall now resides at San Rafael in Northern California.

SUPPOSED COOK VANISHES.

Man Answering Description of Alleged Murderer Seen Near Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 9.—Marshal Young was notified at 2 o'clock this afternoon that a man resembling Fred Cook, wanted for the murder of his wife, was in the vicinity of Bangle Station, three miles north of the city and had asked for food at a ranch house. The supposed Cook was disheveled and wild-looking and terrorized the people to whom he applied. The marshal at once sent officers to Bangle's but the man had gone west evidently toward San Pedro. Notice of this was sent to that city and to Sheriff White.

LONG BEACH BREAKERS.

Two years ago Dr. E. J. Bulgin, the evangelist, was conducting revival services in San Bernardino and became interested in one Charles Campbell, who was on the down grade. He went into a saloon one night, and literally dragging Campbell out, took him to his room and sobered him up. He worked with him and Campbell was converted and remained that way. Not long after he fell heir to $100,000, and to show his gratitude to the evangelist last year presented Dr. Bulgin with an automobile. This gift was last week augmented by making Dr. Bulgin a stockholder in the Clements No. 2 mine in San Bernardino county, and electing him treasurer of the Kelso Mining and Milling Company.

By reason of the annexation of Terminal Island and East San Pedro to Long Beach, the Salt Lake Railroad becomes the heaviest taxpayer in the city. The mere acreage which the road controls is valued at $838,000, and when the franchises, right of way, and improvements are figured in the valuation will reach the million-dollar mark.

While rummaging in the vault in the City Clerk's office, Marshal Young found the golden spike that fifteen years ago, was driven as the connecting link between Los Angeles and Long Beach, in the completion of the old Terminal railroad, now the Salt Lake. The spike bears the inscription: "Last spike driven by Terminal railroad at Long Beach, Cal., Oct. 15, 1891."

On Wednesday of this week, the Salvation Army of Los Angeles will bring 150 old people to the beach for a day's outing. The church people of this city are arranging to serve them with a lunch, the same as last year.

Bishop David S. Moore, who is expected in this part of the State during the Methodist conference, has consented to deliver a lecture for the G. A.R. post of this city, on Monday night. Many of the bishop's old army comrades live in Long Beach.

The plunder of watches, revolvers and jewelry, taken by the police from a 15-year-old boy named Swigert, who was trying to dispose of them at cheap prices, was today identified by J. C. Hannah, a real estate man, of Watts, who says the stuff was stolen from his house, Thursday.

WHITTIER NEWS BRIEFS.

WHITTIER, Sept. 9.—The funeral of Mrs. Allan J. Wilson, the young matron who died here yesterday of ptomaine poisoning, will be held at the family home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The article of food which caused the poisoning still remains unknown, no other member of the family having been made sick in the slightest degree. Mrs. Wilson was active in club, church and social circles, both here and in the North, where, before her marriage, as Miss Katherine Black of Los Gatos, she had a wide circle of riends.

Whittier college will open its doors for the beginning of the school year Tuesday, with the largest enrollment of students in its history, and with several new departments. The faculty has been increased, also, the new members being Mrs. E. M. Ingersoll of Chicago, who will have charge of the new art department; Miss Iro Trueblood of Guilford College, teacher of biology; Howard Hockett of Chicago, instructor of vocal music, and Lloyd Thompson of Yale, the new physical director. A programme, which will introduce the new teachers and give some idea of the scope of the work undertaken by the institution, will be given in the college chapel at 10 a.m., on the opening day.

A consignment of new books for children has just been placed on the shelves of the public library. The new books number nearly two hundred volumes, and includes history, biography and fiction.

Members of the Whittier Athletic Association have elected the following officers: Dr. A. H. Jessup, president; Dr. G. H. Flanders, vice-president; Charles Williams, secretary; Allen W. Tomlinson, treasurer; Prof. O. E. Rogers, basketball manager; Fred Baldwin, baseball manager; Alva Starbuck, boxing manager; Herman Perry, fencing manager; Porter Elemon, custodian.

John Shanker of South Whittier avenue, one of the older residents of this city, is reported this morning to be dying from tuberculosis, from which he has long been a sufferer.

QUEER THINGS GROW THERE.

Freak Products of the Soil and Chicken Yard Shown in Long Beach.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Sept. 9.—The past week has developed a trio of odd fruit specimens here.

W. L. Densmoor found a freak egg in one of his hens' nests. It was the size of a turkey egg, and on breaking, disclosed floating in the white fluid, another perfect egg inclosed in shell and the size of an ordinary hen's egg. None of his milk flock looked guilty and Mr. Densmire is unable to place the blame.

L. B. Dowley, corner of Eleventh and Magnolia, raised a watermelon in his back lot from government seed, which is five feet in circumference one way, and four feet around the center.

J. G. Parish, however, must be awarded the record for oddity in the shape of a pumpkin. The vine climbed the side of his cottage on Fifth street and then bore a tiny pumpkin which grew until it was necessary to build a shelf under it to support its weight, the vine not being strong enough to hold a big pumpkin eight feet from the ground.

MANY HURLED FROM CARS.

Receiving Hospital Surgeons Kept Busy Giving Treatment to Injured Trolley Passengers.

An unusually large number of persons injured in street car accidents were sent to the Receiving Hospital yesterday.

S. L. Griffith of No. 1976 Pennsylvania avenue fell from a Boyle Heights car on Macy street and sustained severe bruises about the body and limbs. He was about to alight from the car when his feet slipped, and he fell.

Mrs. O. J. Evers of No. 120 Savannah street was hurled from an East First-street car in front of No. 111 West First street, and sustained a laceration of the chin. As Mrs. Evers was leaving the car a boy tripped her and she fell heavily to the ground.

When E. M. Carman of No. 1440 East Forty-fourth street was alighting from a car at Seventh and Spring streets last evening, he was hurled to the pavement. The step of the coach caught his leg and bruised it severely.

C. E. Miles of Redondo was thrown from a Los Angeles-Redondo car at Second and Spring streets and fractured his left collar bone. He was standing on the step of the car when the coach gave a sudden start, and he was thrown to the pavement.

Several other persons were given treatment at the hospital for minor injuries received in street car accidents.

LIQUOR DEALERS ARRESTED.

Two Proprietors of Saloons and Waiter Apprehended for Violating the Sunday Law.

Keepers of "Sunday saloons" apparently had forgotten that yesterday The Times had roused the police department to action, for several proprietors were arrested on the charge of serving liquor without a bona-fide meal. As a result of law-breaking by several of the liquor dealers, the police will take more pains next Sunday to apprehend violators.

Two officers strolled into the saloon run by A. J. Dunlap at No. 625 Central avenue, during the afternoon and ordered beer. The order was filled but the proprietor failed to serve any lunch with the liquor. As a result Dunlap, and Hi Togo, a Japanese waiter, were arrested.

In making the rounds of other saloons the police arrested Frank Wood, proprietor of a drinking place. The police spent the greater part of the day and evening searching through the Sunday saloons but could not find any other violators.

KILLS COMRADE, AND ESCAPES.

Youth Slays Fellow Worker Who Threatened Him.

Long Beach Officers Scour the Country for Fugitive.

"He'll Bother Me no More," Is Murderer's Assertion.

Constance Lilley, aged 17, shot and killed his fellow worker, Alexander Gonzales, a Mexican, aged 18, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the Torrey dairy farm at Watson Station, five miles northwest of Long Beach. The slayer fled shortly after the murder and up to a late hour last night had eluded the posse of officers which set out in pursuit.

The tragedy was the sequel to several weeks of quarreling between the two employés. The other workers at the farm say that Gonzales had nagged and threatened Lilley on many occasions.

The shooting took place shortly after the employés had begun the morning milking. Two shots rang out suddenly and when the, other milkers rushed forward they found Gonzales lying upon his face stone dead. Near him stood young Lilley, white and trembling, with a revolver in his hand.

SLAYER TALKS OF VICTIM.

Lilley turned a set face to those who approached and said: "I got him that time; he'll bother me no more." Then turned and walked away, going directly to the home of his mother near by. To her he confided his troubles and was advised to go to Long Beach at once and give himself up.

Accompanied by his little sister, young Lilley went to Willows Junction on the Pacific Electric line, and then, remembering that he had left his watch and money at Torrey's ranch, he sent his sister home, telling her he would go to town as soon as he got his things from the ranch.

POSSE SEEKS MURDERER.

The murderer returned quickly to the farm, secured his watch and money, and then disappeared. Word was sent to Long Beach and a posse of officers began searching for the fugitive. The officers learned that Lilley had met a friend on the road to Santa Ana about noon. The murderer was riding a bicycle and told his friend that he intended to go to Mexico at once.

Gonzales was killed instantly. One bullet entered the head just under the right ear; the other shot was in the back. The body was taken to Walker & Brown's morgue in Long Beach and the Coroner was notified.

Lilley has dark hair, smooth face and is nearly six feet in height.

FEAR FATE OF THE CONQUERED.

KOREANS BEWAIL TYRANNY OF OFFICIAL JAPAN.

Student Colony from Hermit Kingdom Tells of High-handed Proceedings by the Japanese in the Peninsula—Marquis Ito the Real Power and "Keeper" of Emperor.

The Korean colony in Los Angeles is much perturbed over recent developments in their home kingdom, just reported to members of the colony by letters in the last mail. They fear that Japan is encroaching on the Hermit Kingdom so rapidly that many of them will never again see Korea while it is free—that before they can return to their peninsular home it will be part of Japan. How vital this vision of Japanese domination is to even the Koreans here is shown by the fact that the students in the colony will not discuss home matters freely, for fear that the Japanese government will prohibit students from coming to America if they are too free of speech.

Late letters emphasize especially the statement that the Japanese are doing nothing for the Koreans, but are very active in improvements that will aid the merchants of the island kingdom. The Koreans feel that their Emperor is no longer Emperor, but that Marquis Ito is the real power in Korea, and say that no orders are carried out without the sanction of the marquis.

One thing that stirs the colony especially is that Che Ik Hun is to be carried to Japan. Hun is 78 years old, a favorite with his people, a kind of patriarch. He was a minister in the government council, and stood out for what he considered the rights of the Koreans. The Japanese charged that he was trying to break the peace between the two governments, as has already been told by telegraph dispatches, arrested him and confined him in a Japanese military jail.

It is now stated by the home folk of the Korean colony that he will be sent to Japan, and that with him will be sent nine other men who have proved themselves obnoxious to the Jap officers. They also say that in future every man who stands for his rights will be arrested and deported to Japan.

Practical seizure of Korean territory by the Japanese government is also feared. Instead of asking for a site for new military works, the government is said to have received a dispatch something like this: "We will establish a naval station in Chin Hai Bay and also in Yung Hong Bay."

Chin Hai Bay is the most important harbor on the southeast coast of Korea, and affords the most direct access for Japan from her great naval bases. Yung Hong Bay is on the northeast coast, fartherest north of the Korean ports, and consequently nearest to Siberia. Both are important bases for Japan, and the Koreans fear that they will be taken and made Japanese territory for all time, just as Kiaouchou and Wei-Hai-Wei have become German and English.

Another grievance of the Koreans is that laborers are made to work by force on the public works planned and constructed by the Japanese, and do not receive in return even the small wage that the daily laborer is ordinarily paid.

The Japanese say that they are only taking hold until the Koreans are strong enough to govern themselves and maintain independence, when they will be granted autonomy, but the local Koreans feel that this is only a farce, and that their native land is doomed to be swallowed by the Japs.

LION'S MOUTH, CLOSE MISS.

San Bernardino Hunters Have Thrilling Adventure in Mountains.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 9.—The quickness, coolness and certainty of aim saved Clarence Snow from being torn to atoms by an enraged lioness, which had sprang to the protection of its whelps, one of which lay dead at Snow's feet.

Snow and William Stancer have just returned from the wilds of the Coxey ranch region, beyond Little Bear Valley, where the adventure occurred. On substantiation they bring back the hide of a big lioness and her whelp, besides the skull of the former, the great structure of bone giving some idea of the size of the beast.

They were hunting deer in an unfrequented gorge when they found two whelps tearing pieces from the carcass of a colt. Both fired and one of the whelps cried in pain. They could see by the threshing of the brush at the top of the gorge that it was struggling on the ground. Snow climbed to the spot and held the whelp up for Stancer to see. It was dead, and in the brush not far off the other whelp cried piteously.

Snow had drawn a bead on the second creature when a warning cry from Stancer made his finger linger on the trigger, and undoubtedly saved his life. The next instant a wild, savage roar led him to whirl about, and he found himself looking down the barrel of his rifle at an immense lioness, which made a spring through the air toward him.

The rifle spoke, the big beast emitted a shriek of pain and rage, and fell threshing furiously at Snow's feet, dying quickly. The men feared the animal's mate might return any moment and, quickly removing the hides from the two dead lions and taking the big one's head, they fled from the place.

GOLDFIELD UNION ROGUES BEATEN.

MINE OWNERS OVERCOME THE WORK OF AGITATORS.

Majority of Law-Abiding Laborers in Camp Are Opposed to Trouble-making Leaders and so the Walking Delegates Decide to Take a Back Seat—No Danger of Strike.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Sept. 8.—There was a dullness in some of the prominent stocks this week. Lower prices were quoted, and but few shares changed hands. The labor situation has given some concern, but there is reason to believe that there is little danger now of either a strike or a lockout.

For some time certain labor leaders have had considerable influence upon affairs of the camp, and their actions have caused much talk of a threatening nature, but it has developed that a large majority of the miners and laboring men in all trades are satisfied with their wages and hours, and do not want trouble, and will not support leaders who may be looking for trouble. On this account there is friction between the Industrial Workers of the World on the one side, and the International Typographical Union, the painters, carpenters, Western Federation and other trades unions in opposition.

It is believed now that it will be unnecessary for the mine owners and other employers to take any action looking to an adjustment of the matters which had heretofore given cause for concern. For instance, a large number of men have, since Goldfield's discovery, been deported from camp. Every man who was mixed up in the Colorado troubles and who was on the side of the mine owners, who has come here, has been escorted out of camp.

CITIZENS BALK AGITATORS.

Last week Thornton Horton, a Colorado man, was forcibly escorted to the outskirts of the town and ordered to hike, and he proceeded up the railroad track toward Tonopah. When George Wingfield heard of it he gathered several prominent men in his automobile and went out and brought Horton back. At the same time notice was served on the union men who have indulged in this sort of thing that the practice must be stopped, and the result is that lovers of peace in all trades are openly expressing sentiments in accord with the mine owners.

It can therefore be put down as all but certain that there will be no trouble in Goldfield nor in any other camp, for, as stated, both workingmen and employers are satisfied with wages and hours, and neither side desires a repetition of Colorado troubles. In fact, it appears that there could be no harmonious action between the different unions in a strike. The Industrial Workers have been insisting that carpenters, painters, printers and men in trades, having their own distinctive unions, should join the Industrial Workers. They refuse to do so, and some of the leading men in all these organizations are bitter against those in the industrials who would create trouble.

TEMPEST IN TEAPOT.

Another matter that may have had some influence on the market is the rumor about the litigation pending between the Combination mine and the Mohawk Company. This is a small matter, and will not affect either company very materially. It will be remembered that last winter, before any strikes had been made in the Mohawk, a strike was made in the Ish lease on the Combination. At that time the Ish strike was the most important event in camp. The strike was made near the side line of the Mohawk, and the question arose whether the apex of the vein discovered by Ish went through the side line to Mohawk ground, or whether it turned a little to the south and went through the end line of the Combination into Silver Pick. The Mohawk people sank a shaft on their property right across from Ish, found the ore and broke into Ish's workings on Combination. The latter company then sought to enjoin Mohawk from mining at this point, and the case is pending. So far as known the ore body at this point is not so large or valuable as to make a very great difference to either company, and in any event, the litigation does not relate to all that work on the other parts of Mohawk ground from where the immense tonnage of ore is now being taken, nor does it affect the main works of the Combination.

There were 10,000 people here to attend the prize fight. Special trains ran from both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Everybody was satisfied. Both of the pugilists bled profusely. After the fight many remained to look into the mining business and learn the source of all the wealth evidenced throughout Nevada. Thus some good may come from the sporting event.

REAL RECOGNITION.

From Cash Girl to Actress, and Former Employer Presents Miss Davis With Flowers.

On Saturday last in the Mammoth Auditorium, on Broadway, the New York School of Acting presented "The Heart of a Hero," a rural drama in five acts. Mr. Osborne, manager of the school, has a well-organized theatrical company, composed of its pupils. The company has been playing suburban towns with success, both artistically and financially. The performance on Saturday evening was creditable.

Arthur Letts and J. J. Murphy of the Broadway Department Store were in the audience and an effective scene was enacted when Mr. Murphy walked to the stage and presented Miss Anna Davis with floral tributes. Miss Davis, at one time, was a "cash girl," and Mr. Murphy has watched her progress with much interest. This is only one instance of the encouragement he has shown her.

The company, as a whole, did excellent work.

WEAK MEN
Let Me Guide You On Your Way To Regain Your Health and Renew Your Strength

Dr. Taylor
The Leading Specialist.

Do you feel that you are not the man you once were? Do you feel tired in the morning and easily exhausted? Is your back weak? Is your memory failing? Do you have difficulty in fixing your thoughts? Are you losing ambition? If you have any or all of the above symtoms, you surely do not desire to remain so. Let me explain to you my methods of rebuilding the vigor of men, and refer you to the thousands I have cured. I guarantee to cure all the Special Diseases of men, such as Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Contracted Disorders, Contagious Blood Poison, Nervous Debility, etc.

Get Cured Now
It is not a question of whether you can be cured, but whether you will be cured. Don't wait until it is too late. The cure is absolutely certain. I cause no pain, and you need not be detained from your work for one day. I especially solicit those cases in which the many so-called treatments have failed, or where money has been wasted on electric belts and other appliances.

Examination Free
I offer not only FREE Consultation and Advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a Careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about this trouble.

If you cannot call, write for Diagnosis Chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

You Pay When Well
What better proof or more sincere assurance can I offer than I am willing to wait for my fee until I effect a cure? Could I afford to make such an offer if I was not absolutely certain of curing every case I take?

A CURE
Is What You Want
Others May TREAT, But We Cure

Strictly Reliable

You must come to us sooner or later. Why not now? Refuse to suffer longer on promises of others.

Our Best Reference is Not a Dollar Need be Paid Until Cured.

There are so many men suffering from chronic Pelvic diseases, and the greater number of these victims are still more unfortunate in treating with doctors who know only enough to produce temporary results, or a false cure, if they succeed in benefiting the sufferer at all. There is no such thing as a partial cure of a disease, and the physician whose method does not eradicate every vestige cannot rightfully claim to do more than relieve. Our Pelvic Methods Insure Every Man.

A life-long cure for prostatic troubles, varicocele, kidney and bladder, blood poison, special diseases.

Our cure is a thorough and scientific course of treatment, which acts at once upon the nerve force, stopping the drain and replacing the worn out and run-down tissues. It increases the weight in sound, healthy flesh and muscles that give strength and fills the brain and nerves with fresh vitality, building up the entire system and transforming the sufferer into a type of perfect manhood. If you cannot call, write for symtom blanks.

My Experience

Many Men

Has taught me that the best results are obtained by direct methods.

Good results are never had by guessing, but by knowing what to do and how to do it with facilities that are equal to the requirements, and for this reason I often refuse to send by mail, treatment, that I can safely say, if given in my own office will be prompt and effective. In this, you may know just what you can depend upon, and I will know the exact condition and cause. With my treatment and methods that are most rational you will note improvement from the first and it will be the beginning of a permanent cure. Patients coming to the city for treatment are furnished rooms free. I accomplish more in one week than can ever be accomplished by guessing through the mail.

FUNCTIONAL DECLINE
Termed Weakness by Some.
I am positive the treatment I employ in the cure of this derangement is the most potent, rational, direct, and certain, whereby functional activity of the parts can be restored. Many man, suffering from this condition, will find the cause directly traceable to the reproductive system.

STRICTURE.
I cure in 10 to 15 days. I have devoted years of study to the formation and complete eradication of urethral obstructions. I restore health and tone to the membrane. My exact cause treatment removes the necessity of any surgery. The right treatment, applied the right way, will always bring good results.

VARICOCELE.
Many men have treated for this diseased condition, and few have found permanent cure. My treatment is thorough, and cures in 4 to 6 days, and there is no relapse of the old weakness that accompanied the disease. The treatment is direct and for the exact cause. It is a treatment not in common use, and is the most effective yet known.

CONTRACTED DISEASES.
I cure these ailments more quickly, with less pain and inconvenience, than any one claiming to treat successfully these conditions. Has your case become chronic through improper treatment or by the use of caustic remedies? Has it caused deep seated inflammation and irritation of the urinary tract, as the result of which you now suffer from stricture? My treatment cures these conditions quickly, and the cure is permanent.

Robbing Yourself

That is just what you are doing when you fail to get regular and sufficient sleep. Your body requires this unconscious period for repair work; without it your nerve energy becomes exhausted, and you are tired, worn-out, nervous, excitable; have headache, neuralgia, indigestion, poor appetite, or other ailments caused by a lack of nerve force. Make it your business to sleep. If you are restless, take Dr. Miles' Nervine; it soothes and strengthens the nerves, and brings sweet, refreshing, life-giving sleep, and gives the organs power to work naturally. Try it to-day.

"I had a severe spell of fever, which left me in a very weak condition and very nervous. I had severe spells of headache and neuralgia, and could sleep but very little. Every effort that was made to recover my strength was of no avail until I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After I commenced to take the Nervine my sleep was profound and restful, and the pains in my head, as well as the neuralgia pains, left me to a certain extent and I grew gradually better."

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

"Christ and Science."

Rev. Robert R. Meredith, D.D., pastor of the First Congregational Church, Pasadena, will read a paper this morning before the Methodist ministers' meeting on the subject of "The Advent of Christ in the Light of Science."

Coffee Club Remodeled.

Coffee Club No. 3, located at No. 112 Court street, has proven such a success that the Coffee Club Association has remodeled the concern, and has engaged the upper floor for the use of its reading and game rooms.

Francis Murphy Meetings.

Francis Murphy, the apostle of gospel temperance, writes that he expects to resume his weekly meetings in Blanchard Hall the first week in October. His health has been greatly strengthened during his trip in the East.

Will Dedicate Window.

The Catholic Church at Sherman is to be beautified by the placing in its walls of a beautiful art glass window, depicting the Sacred Heart. This window will be formally dedicated by Bishop Conaty, assisted by several of the Catholic clergy of Los Angeles and vicinity, October 16.

Built a Rectory.

A rectory has been built on land adjoining the Church of the Immaculate Conception, at Wilson and Enterprise streets. The church also has been enlarged to meet the demands of the growing congregation. Rev. Michael Raimundo has been placed in charge of its work, which is especially for Italians.

New Portable Chapels.

Rev. W. A. Jackson, under appointment of the Presbyterian Church Extension Committee, is securing funds for the erection of several portable chapels to be used in the rapidly-growing sections of the city, where there are no established Presbyterian churches. The first of these chapels has been erected at the corner of Huron street and Avenue 28, and a Sunday-school has been organized there by Rev. G. C. Butterfield, Presbyterian Sunday-school missionary.

An Insane "Roller."

Charles Thomas, No. 1154 Santee street, was removed from his home to the Receiving Hospital late yesterday afternoon because he showed signs of insanity. Thomas is a young man and has been employed as a telegraph operator. Some time ago he came to Los Angeles from the East for his health. Some of the officers believe that Thomas has been attending the meeting of the Holy Rollers on Azusa street and has been wrought to such a pitch that he is temporarily insane. The police will hold him until they can investigate his case, or have him removed to a private sanatorium.

Injured at Long Beach.

Mrs. Fred Sook of No. 715 South Flower street was seriously injured at Long Beach last night, by jumping from a moving car. Mr. and Mrs. Sook and their son, Manuel, were at Long Beach for the day, and started for Los Angeles about 8 o'clock, when a large crowd was returning. There was a trailer attached to the regular car, and Sook and his son got aboard one car, while Mrs. Sook found a place on the trailer. When the husband and son looked over the crowd they could not see Mrs. Sook, and decided she had been unable to get aboard. They therefore swung off the car. Mrs. Sook saw them, and rushing to the steps she jumped from the moving trailer, and fell on her back. She was unconscious when picked up and carried to Hotel Del Mar, where Dr. Huff attended her. Her spine is severely bruised, and she is suffering from internal injuries, and at a late hour last night had not recovered consciousness.

ROBS HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Man Estranged from Wife Secures Two Hundred Dollars Worth of Gems by Burglary.

James Wade was imprisoned yesterday for robbing his mother-in-law's residence of $200 worth of jewelry. Part of the loot was found in his room, and he did not deny that he had stolen the gems.

Wade and his wife separated some time ago. The detectives says that Wade burglarized the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. Leonard, No. 920 Santa Fé avenue, three nights ago. A screen door was cut away, and entrance accomplished.

Wade was suspected. Detectives Ziegler and Hosick found part of the plunder in his room. Later Wade entered the apartment and was arrested.

TRAPEZE PERFORMER HURT.

Charles Leona, a trapeze performer, was struck on the head with a stone by a boy about 9 o'clock last evening in the rear of the Empire Theater. The wound was a deep one, and Leona was sent to the Receiving Hospital. Leona recovered recently from a fall in which he nearly lost his life.

Marconi Securities
Installments Small Monthly Payments
Marconi Wireless Telegraphy Will Revolutionize the World

The best invention ever offered the public. We say this without contradiction. Don't wait until it is too late. This is a chance of a lifetime. It is advancing every day. We have some inside information that will make it advance still more rapidly. We have on hand a limited stock that was purchased when it was very low. We can sell at a profit while it lasts very reasonable. In fact, we consider that it is selling at a bargain in proportion than it was one year ago. There is not much more of this stock left. When the company made up its books the 1st of January, 1908, there were only 29,000 shares left on its books. We do not think that it will be long before we shall be able to dispose of this. Our method of disposing of this stock is very simple. We start with small means an equal chance. Remember that as soon as you have made the first payment, from that day you have the benefits of all the rises that the Marconi sold recently for over 300 per cent. advance and it is selling for much more than at that. We have a much larger territory. We can sell you stock in the American or Canadian. See us before buying elsewhere. CUT THIS OUT AND BRING IT TO US. Call or write for prospectus and terms.
